LONDON:
HENRY G. BOHN, YORK STREET, COVENT GARDEN.

1846.

ADDRESS.

A CYCLE of nineteen years has been completed, since the appearance of the first number of these Illustrations; within which period no less than 72 distinct works on Entomology, forming 112 volumes, have emanated from the British press (exclusive of reprints, and of works on Bees). Of these more than half (41) are arranged in conformity with the views developed in this work, or my Systematic Catalogue;—the remainder being chiefly devoted to the description of foreign Insects, to particular groups of Insects, or being elementary treatises on the subject.

From these facts, and from what is shewn in the note below,* and hereafter stated, it would appear that my labours have contributed materially towards the advancement of Entomology in this country.

That the exertions of Dr. Leach, and of Messrs. Kirby and Spence, however, greatly conduced towards instilling a taste for this department of Zoology, and its consequent progression, need scarcely be insisted upon in this place; but the foundations of a building are of little avail, unless the building itself be erected:—it has been my endeavour to attempt the stupendous enterprize, so far as relates to the indigenious species of insects; but, alas! vainly. Nevertheless, I have succeeded in partially rearing the temple, and my success may be rendered manifest by the following brief recapitulation of my labours.

Previously to 1818, the total number of species of insects described, or recorded, as British, was 3673; in that year about 500 additional species were introduced in Samouelle's Compendium, from my cabinets; and subsequently about 100 more, in the first two volumes of Curtis's Genera, chiefly from my manuscripts; making altogether less than 4500 antecedent to the appearance of my Systematic Catalogue, in July, 1829, in which 10,116 species are indicated as indigenous.

* About 300 copies of the Illustrations, 412 of my Systematic Catalogue, and 1220 of my Nomenclature, have been disposed of within the period in question.

In the Illustrations I have described 7165 species, and characterized 1114 genera—a greater number than has hitherto been introduced into any single work on Entomology (the nearest approach to that number being Schönherr's Curculionidæ, in which 7141 species, and 631 genera, are detailed),—and about 5000 species, and at least 500 genera, remain to be described; a task I had hoped to have accomplished, but circumstances wholly beyond my control have totally frustrated that intention, and the work has now passed into other hands, and been brought to a conclusion; notwithstanding a very considerable portion of the manuscript has been long prepared.

The attempt to describe all the indigenous species of insects, has been scouted as a physical impossibility, which is true to a certain extent, as no human labours can be perfect; nevertheless, it is evident that an approach may be made towards the attainment of the object: how far I have effected the same may be illustrated by calling attention to the comparatively few species that have been discovered belonging to the portion of this work already published, notwithstanding the great increase in the number of practical collectors. I may also add, that in my Systematic Catalogue, after abating the unnamed species indicated therein, and the doubtful ones, the real number named is 8959, and in Mr. Curtis's Guide, 1st edition, which registers 10,420, after a similar process, there remains only 8966! A tolerable proof that I had made some approximation towards the actual number, inasmuch as the Guide took full two years to complete, after the appearance of my Catalogue.* In the 2nd edition of the Guide, 12,003 species are enumerated, upwards of 2000 of which, amongst the Hymenoptera and Diptera, are not British.

* Boisduval, in his Species Général des Lépidoptères, p. 140, in speaking of my Catalogue and Curtis's Guide, says—"L'ouvrage de M. Stephens étant postérieur de quelques mois à celui de M. Curtis," &c. In answer to which it is most essential for the interests of truth and of science to state, that the first 20 columns only of the Guide—(15 thereof made up from these Illustrations, as far as then completed)—were published on the 1st of June, 1829, (not in March, as it would appear by the date at the end of the Preface), anterior to the appearance of my Catalogue in July following; the Lepidopterous portion of the Guide not appearing till towards the end of 1830.

Since the publication of the last number of this work in January 1837, I have been unwearied in my endeavours to obtain a complete census of our indigenous species, and have proceeded to a considerable extent in working up an amended edition of my Catalogue (or Nomenclature), by patiently re-examining the references to every species and synonym, attaching the actual date when possible to every reference, and re-arranging my collection on a novel plan, to correspond exactly with every name, both specific and synonymical: a proceeding which the possession of the largest collection of British Insects, and probably the most extensive Entomological Library (about 1500 volumes), have enabled me to perform with some prospect of success, especially now that my time is solely at my own disposal. This Nomenclature it was my full intention to print with the continuation of the Illustrations; whether, however, it may now ever see the light is problematical: it will not be my fault should it not, for no person has more sincere cause to regret the abrupt termination of this work than myself, having not only devoted the greater portion of a not very short life towards its prosecution, at a cost of nearly £10,000, in the formation of my Collection and Library, and in the expense of publication; but as a consequence of loss of time in defending my copyright in 1832-3, my prospects were for ever blighted, by the inconsiderate prejudices of an implacable and tyrannical individual: thus compelling me, in the decline of life, to embrace the first opportunity that presented itself, of relieving myself of the thralldom of office, and of retiring in comparative penury therefrom!

Contrasted therewith, I have now in conclusion the pleasure sincerely to return my thanks to my Subscribers generally, for their support, and more particularly to the following gentlemen,—amongst whose names will be found those of the persons most eminently distinguished for their respective attainments in the various branches of natural science, in this country,—for their recent exertions on my behalf.

Found, very rarely, near London; and in Suffolk; in the spring.

The insects included in this genus are all of the utmost rarity near London; but under favourable circumstances, and in some localities, numerous examples have been observed and captured.—It would appear from the diversity in the form of the wings and other minor characters, that there were several distinct species: I have, however, been unsuccessful in obtaining more than two, viz. Melittæ and Dalii.

The following are the indigenous species recorded, viz. :—

- Sp. 1. Melittæ Kirby.—Barham: Clapham.
2. Kirbyi Leach.—Devonshire.
3. Haworthi Stephens.—Chelsea.
4. Spencii Pickering.—Hammersmith.
5. Dalii Curtis.—Epping and Dorset.

The St. tennicornis Kirby is the type of a distinct genus, called ELENCHUS by Curtis, and synonymous with his El. Walkeri, of which I once brushed a specimen from off some high grass near Hertford in July.

One other species, viz. Haliotophagus Curtisii, closes the account of the ascertained British species of this singular order of insects.

Its beautiful arches are fretted and pinnacled and crocketed in the best style of Gothic at its best period, and the graceful arching of the roof, unsupported by console or column, is unequalled.  "Sir Harris Nicolas has produced the first comprehensive History of the British Orders of Knighthood; and it is one of the most elaborately prepared and splendidly printed works that ever issued from the press. The Author appears to us to have neglected no sources of information, and to have exhausted them, as far as regards the general scope and purpose of the inquiry. The Graphical Illustrations are such as become a work of this character upon such a subject; at, of course, a lavish cost. The resources of the recently revived art of wood-engraving, have been combined with the new art of printing in colour, so as to produce a rich and almost rivalling that of the monastic illuminations. Such a book is sure of a place in every great library. It is not only calculated to interest extensive classes of readers, and we hope by our specimen to excite their curiosity."—Quarterly Review.

This new edition is exquisitely coloured, and must rank high among the luxurious publications of the age. Its literary and scientific excellence is in keeping with its attractive appearance.

"A few years ago, a new edition, with impressions from the original plates, was published under the editorial care of Mr. Westwood, by Mr. Henry Bohn the Bookseller. It is not easy to speak of this edition in terms of too high commendation. The colouring, executed from the original drawings, under the superintendence of one of the ablest entomological artists of the day, is faithful to nature, and owing to the fineness of the paper and a particular process to which it has been subjected, possesses a lustre and beauty which were unattainable at the time when the original edition appeared. The text has been in a great measure rewritten; ample and accurate descriptions introduced; the modern nomenclature applied, and the intricacies of synonymy unravelled; indexes and much original matter added, and the whole work adapted to the present advanced state of science."—Sir W. Jardine.

EVELYN'S SYLVA AND TERRA, a Discourse of Forest Trees, and the Propagation of Timber Trees, with an Historical Account of the Sacredness and Use of Standing Groves; to which is added, the TERRA, a Philosophical Discourse of Earth; with Life of the Author, and Notes by Dr. A. This, though a complete work in itself, forms an almost indispensable supplement to the THIRTY-SIX VOLUMES OF SOWERBY'S ENGLISH BOTANY, WHICH DOES NOT COVER HEAD CRYPTOGAMIC PLANTS. It is one of the most scientific and beautiful works on Indigenous Botany ever produced in this country.

"A truly admirable work, which may be honestly designated as so excellent, that nothing can be found to compete with it in the whole range of Indigenous Botany; whether we consider the importance of its critical discussions, the accuracy of the drawings, the minuteness of the analyses, or the unusual care which is evident in the publishing department. After expressing this opinion, we are sure the work will need no further recommendation with the public."

London's Gardener's Magazine.

The grandest and most valuable of the many scientific works produced by Sir William Hooker.

This is the most superb and attractive of all Dr. Hooker's valuable works.

"The Exotic Flora by Dr. Hooker is like that or all the Botanical publications of the indefatigable author, excellent; and it assumes an appearance of finish and to which neither the Botanical Magazine nor Register can externally lay claim."—London.

"We have read the work of Mr. Huish with very great pleasure. He, indeed, claims cap, gown, and chair, as Regius Professor of Apiarian Science, and demolishes in every page one or other of 'the crude and fallacious statements of Huber.' His work is most exact, and contains much solid information. We feel the healthier and happier for meeting with such a book. The repose of the forest walk is on it, and the fragrant summer meadow breathes through its pages; and we forget the hot pavement, the glaring lights, the loud voices of London—with the many sins, in which Charles Lamb delighted."—Athenæum.

MUDIE'S (ROBT.) HISTORY OF BRITISH BIRDS, or the Feathered Tribes of the British Islands, 2 vols. 8vo. new edition, the plates beautifully coloured, extra cloth gilt, (pub. at £1. 8s) reduced to 16s

"This is, without any exception, the most truly charming work on Ornithology which has hitherto appeared, from the days of Willughby downwards. Other authors describe, Mudie paints; other authors give the husk, Mudie the kernel. We most heartily concur with the opinion expressed of this work by Leigh Hunt (a kindred spirit) in the first few numbers of his right pleasant London Journal. The descriptions of Bewick, Pennant, Lewin, Montagu, and even Wilson, will not for an instant stand comparison with the spirit-stirring emanations of Audubon's 'living pen,' as it has been called. We are not acquainted with any author who so felicitously unites beauty of style with strength and nerve of expression—he does not specify, he paints."

Wood's Ornithological Guide.

"The 'Feathered Tribes' is indeed an EXQUISITE WORK, and unquestionably the best that has yet appeared on the habits of our native birds, in that it is scarcely second to those of Wilson and Audubon. Audubon is the most accurate observer of nature,—Selby excepted, and he treats not exclusively of habits—consequently the 'Feathered Tribes' deserves a distinguished place on the shelves of the philosophic ornithologist."

SELBY'S COMPLETE BRITISH ORNITHOLOGY, A MOST MAGNIFICENT WORK OF THE FIGURES OF BRITISH BIRDS, containing exact and faithful representations in their full natural size, of all the known species found in Great Britain, 363 Figures in 228 beautifully coloured plates, 2 vols. elephant folio, elegantly hf. bd. morocco, full gilt back and gilt edges, with glazed paper to the plates, (published at £105.) reduced to £31. 10s 1834

The grandest work on Ornithology published in this country, the same for British Birds that Audubon's is for the birds of America. Every figure, excepting in a very few instances of extremely large birds, is of the full natural size, beautifully and accurately drawn, with all the spirit of life.

"Every individual of the Falcon and Owl Families would make a PERFECT PICTURE OF ITSELF, so beautifully and correctly are they executed: THEY HAVE CERTAINLY NEVER BEEN EQUALLED EVEN BY GOULD AND AUDUBON."—Ornithologist's Text Book.

The author has been most successful, especially in the larger birds, and it would be impossible to improve on any of the Raptores, which for fidelity, boldness, and spirit, are unequalled—every feather is distinct, yet beautifully blended."

Wood's Ornithological Guide.

"What a splendid work! This is the kind of ornamental furniture, in which we, were we men of fortune, would delight. The tables in our passages, galleries, parlours, bowdors, and drawing-rooms should gleam—no, not gleam—but smile, with suitably-bound volumes of Natural History, on the opening of any one of which, would suddenly gleam before us some rich and rare, some bright and beautiful, some wonderful and wild, some strange and fantastic, some fierce and terrible, some minute or mighty production of the great mother—Nature. What a treasure, for instance, during a rainy forenoon in the country, is such a gloriously illuminated work as this of Mr. Selby. It is, without doubt, the most splendid of the kind ever published in Britain, and will stand a comparison, without any eclipse of its lustre, with the most magnificent ornithological illustrations of the French school. Mr. Selby has long and deservedly ranked high as a scientific naturalist."

Blackwood's Magazine.

"Many of the most rare and beautiful species of this singularly elegant genus (the Volutes), have been figured by Swainson in his Exotic Conchology, with a verisimilitude that has never been equalled, and probably never will be excelled, by any artist. This talent, combined with his scientific knowledge as a naturalist, must render the above work the most eminent of its kind in the country."—Duclos.

— ORNITHOLOGICAL DRAWINGS, being figures of the rarer, and most interesting Birds of BRAZIL. Complete in 7 parts, royal 8vo. CONTAINING SEVENTY-EIGHT BEAUTIFULLY COLOURED PLATES, elegantly half bound morocco, in one volume, (pub. at £3. 13s 6d) reduced to £2. 5s

"A splendid work, in every respect worthy of its Author. Further commendation we feel would be superfluous."—Loudon.

— ZOOLOGICAL ILLUSTRATIONS, or Original Figures and Descriptions of New, Rare, or Interesting Animals, selected chiefly from the Classes of Ornithology, Entomology, and Conchology, and arranged on the Principles of Cuvier and other Modern Zoologists, BOTH SERIES COMPLETE, 6 vols. royal 8vo. containing 318 FINELY COLOURED PLATES, neatly half bound morocco, gilt edges, (pub. at £16. 16s) reduced to £9. 9s

This highly esteemed publication has long been considered very scarce.

"It might, perhaps, almost be deemed presumption to offer any remarks on a work emanating from the pen and pencil of, undoubtedly, the first Ornithologist of the day, but we feel it our duty to give our readers some idea of the contents of the Zoological Illustrations. It will be sufficient, if we mention that his coloured figures of birds are almost unequalled—they are certainly not surpassed. The figures are beyond conception lovely and delicate, and it only remains for us to remark, that EVERY PHILOSOPHIC ORNITHOLOGIST MUST POSSESS THE ZOOLOGICAL ILLUSTRATIONS, IF INDEED THEY ARE NOW TO BE HAD."

SWEET'S FLORA AUSTRALASICA, or a Selection of Handsome or Curious Plants, Natives of New Holland, and the South Sea Islands, 15 Nos. forming one vol. royal 8vo. complete, with 56 beautifully coloured plates, extra cloth, (pub. at £3. 15s) reduced to £1. 16s 1827-28

"This department of exotic vegetation is one of the highest interest; it belongs to the opposite part of the globe, and has an aspect of singularity and beauty peculiar to itself. The greatest part of the plants which Mr. Sweet describes consist of ever-green free-flowering shrubs, handsome in every stage of their growth; sometimes singular in foliage; generally elegant in form; curiously rich, beautiful, or brilliant, when in flower; and the flowers in many cases are highly odiferous. These, together with their being so hardy as not to require fire heat, and at the same time being singular and rare, are circumstances which place them in the highest class of greenhouse or conservatory plants."—Louder.

Hodgetts, complete in 1 thick vol. 8vo. with numerous copper plates and wood-cuts of Machinery and Chemical Apparatus, extra cloth boards, (pub. at 18s) reduced to 5s 1841

This is the most compendious and complete Anatomical Atlas ever published.

"The present work has been selected from the most accurate anatomical works of England, France, Italy, and Germany, and includes the latest microscopical observations on the Anatomy of the Fissures. Where plates were not deemed satisfactory, it has been enriched by original drawings, from specimens furnished by the beautiful Anatomical Museum of the University."

SINCLAIR'S (SIR JOHN) CODE OF HEALTH AND LONGEVITY; or, a General View of the Rules and Principles calculated for the Preservation of Health, and the Attainment of Long Life, sixth edition, complete in 1 thick vol. 8vo. portrait, (pub. at £1.) reduced to 7s 1844

This new and compact edition contains the whole of the previous four volumes, with such improvements as the advanced state of knowledge supplies. Drs. Baillie, Beddoes, Currie, Sprengel, and other eminent Physicians have warmly eulogized the work; but the best testimony of its usefulness is the author's own longevity, as he was enabled to carry on his literary pursuits at the advanced age of eighty.

STUBBS' ANATOMY OF THE HORSE, including a particular Description of the Bones, Cartilages, Muscles, Fascias, Ligaments, Nerves, Arteries, Veins, and Glands, illustrated by 24 fine large copper plate engravings, ALL DRAWN FROM NATURE, imp. folio, in boards, with leather back, (pub. at £4. 4s) reduced to £1. 11s 6d

— the Fifth, or Supplementary volume, entirely by Sir W. J. Hooker, to complete the old editions, 4to. 36 coloured plates, boards, (pub. at £2. 12s 6d) reduced to £1. 11s

No well-stored English Library should be without Woodville's Medical Botany, a work of long-established reputation, and the best on a subject which must, more or less, be interesting to every man of inquiry. It contains accurate figures and descriptions of all the plants used in English medicine, and is of such authority with professional men, as to be almost as essential to them as the Pharmacopœia itself. Subsequent publications of a similar kind, though with Woodville as their text-book, have fallen greatly short of the original, as well in comprehensiveness of plan, as in accuracy of delineation and correctness of coloring.

— MODERN HISTORY, folio, sewed, (pub. at 12s) reduced to 8s

This comprehensive and beautifully executed volume is one of the most arduous and celebrated undertakings produced by the enterprising publisher, and its anxieties are said to have shortened his days. It was compiled with the utmost care and re-earch, from the best works on the subject, both English and Foreign; including those of Bredow, Le Sage, Lavoisne, Hase, HEBEREN, Dumberck, and Vebse; collated and verified with Usher, Blair, HALE, Bell, FYNES CLINTON, etc. etc. At any period from the Deluge to the present day, the reader may at one view see the Political, Ec-clesiastical, Scientific, and Literary state of the whole world; every opening being divided into numerous columns according to the nations then in existence, and each column being devoted to a concise Chronological History of that nation. It is accompanied by very full Genealogical Tables, and a most elaborate Index, by which the reader is enabled in a moment to turn to the date and particulars of every principal event in the history of the world. A more desirable book for library reference, or for school or college use, can hardly be conceived. It is vastly superior to all former manuals of Chronology.

"We trust this book will be most diligently studied; our schools have too long neglected the substantial—we might say, the essentials of history; teachers have loaded the memory with facts, instead of storing the mind with principles. Such a work is a proof of the rapid advance made by continental scholars in developing the true philosophy of history; it directs attention from the facts of revolutions to their causes; it shows that the fortunes of nations, as well as individuals, are determined by their habits of thought and action; and it examines with equal industry and skill the principal circumstances that formed or modified those habits in the most important of ancient nations."—Athenæum.

"This is, without any exception, the most truly charming work on Ornithology which has hitherto appeared, from the days of Willughby downwards. Other authors describe, Mudie paints; other authors give the hook, Mudie the kernel. We most heartily concur with the opinion expressed of this work by Leigh Hunt (a kindred spirit) in the first few numbers of his right pleasant London Journal. The descriptions of Bewick, Pennant, Lewin, Montagu, and even Wilson, will not for an instant stand comparison with the spirit-stirring emanations of Mudie's 'living pen,' as it has well been called. We are not acquainted with any other author who so felicitously unites beauty of style with strength and nerve of expression—he does not specify the paints."—Wood's Ornithological Guide.

The Vocal and Instrumental may be had separately, each in 4 vols. at 16s

. The cheapest and perhaps the best collection of Music ever offered to the public in the same compass. EIGHT FOLIO VOLUMES FOR A GUINEA AND A HALF is little more than the price of waste paper: yet the collection is extremely valuable, and comprehends many of the most admired OLD ENGLISH SONGS, GLEES, MADRIGALS, AS WELL AS INSTRUMENTAL PIECES; and some of the best ITALIAN AND GERMAN MUSIC, (the latter provided with English words) both vocal and instrumental, ancient and modern. In all there are upwards of 400 pieces, which, taken at only one shilling each, and this is much less than one-fourth of what many of them could be bought for separately, would amount to no less than £20.

The value of Daille's work is well known. It has of late been constantly referred to in consequence of the publications of the Oxford Tracts by Dr. Pusey and others. It is an original and valuable treatise, and had a considerable effect in diminishing the undue authority of the Fathers. "It is a work," says Bp Warburton. "of uncommon learning and strength of argument. It brought the Fathers from the Bench to the table, and may be truly said to be the storehouse from whence all who have since written popularly on the character of the Fathers, have derived their materials." "To theological students his works are almost indispensable. In all the branches of theology, didactic, polemical, casuistic, experimental, and practical, he had few equals, and perhaps no superior. The number and variety of his works shew the intenseness of his industry, and the uncommon strength of his intellectual powers. They will live as long as powerful reasoning, genuine religion, and the science of the human mind continue to be objects of respect."—ORME.

"The Rev. Andrew Fuller has been styled by the Americans, 'The Franklin of Theology'; and it is said of him, that 'all his writings bear the powerful stamp of a mind, which, for native vigour, original research, logical acumen, profound knowledge of the human heart, and intimate acquaintance with the Scripture, has had no rival since the days of President Edwards.' The celebrated Robert Hall has also said of him, 'He was a man whose sagacity enabled him to penetrate to the depths of every subject he explored;— whose conceptions were so powerful and luminous, that what was recondite and original appeared familiar: what was intricate, easy and perspicuous, in his hands; equally successful in enforcing the practical, in stating the theoretical, and discussing the polemical branches of Theology.'

"Fuller was of the same good school of divinity as Scott. With a lively imagination and all the powers of a masculine mind, he maintains the distinguishing doctrines of the Gospel, and insists on its practical holiness."—Bickersteth.

"Fuller thought with Owen, and wrote with the pointed pen of Baxter. His discourses are shrewd, instructive and touching."—Orme.

"I am slowly reading Andrew Fuller's works. He was an interesting man; one of the wisest, and most moral minded of his day. He possessed wonderful strength of mind; and is an instance how Providence can draw forth instruments from the most unlikely quarters."—Bishop Jebb.

This is the reprint of a very scarce and highly esteemed volume.

"With sentiments truly evangelical, Dr. Goodwin possesses a most happy talent at opening, sifting, and displaying the hidden riches of scripture. "Rarely, if ever, have superior philosophical attainments been turned to a better account, or a richer offering brought from the fields of science into the temple of God. Not a single consideration of moment, tending to confirm the genuineness and integrity of the Scriptures in their present state, appears to have escaped his notice. He has united with extraordinary attainments in the severer sciences, the art of recommending his sentiments with impressive effect; and he exhibits, in an eminent degree, the most important ingredients of good writing. He is correct and luminous, and often rises to the tone of the most ir passionate feeling. His language is eminently easy flowing, and idiomatic. The abstractions of science have not in him exerted the influence often imputed to them, of chilling the heart, and impairing the vigour of the imagination. While he reasons with the comprehension and depth which distinguish the philosopher, he feels with ardour and paints with force. He is often inspired and transported with his theme. In the midst of pursuits which are not always found to have a propitious effect on the religious character of their votaries, he has found the means of preserving his devotion in its warmth, his faith in its purity, and his sensibility in its infantine freshness and vigour. We earnestly recommend this work to the attentive perusal of all cultivated minds. We are acquainted with no book in the circle of English literature, which is equally calculated to give young persons just views of the evidence, the nature, and the importance of revealed religion."—ROBERT HALL.

GRAVES'S (DEAN) WHOLE WORKS, now first collected, comprising Essay on the Character of the Apostles and Evangelists; Lectures on the Four last Books of the Pentateuch; Proofs of the Trinity; Absolute Predestination compared with the Scripture Statement of the Justice of God; and Sermons; with Life by his Son, Dr. R. H. Graves, 4 vols. 8vo. handsomely printed, portrait, extra cloth bds. (pub. at £2. 16s) reduced to £1. 8s 1840

— LECTURES ON THE PENTATEUCH, 8vo. new edition, cloth lettered, (pub. at 14s) reduced to 10s 6d 1844

— SILLECT SCRIPTURAL PROOFS OF THE TRINITY, 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at 6s) reduced to 3s 1840

"The work of Dr. Graves on the Pentateuch is truly invaluable, and we cannot but strongly advise every student in divinity to get it up (as it is called), in preparing for his ordination."—British Critic. The late excellent Bishop Lloyd made it one of the text books of his private divinity lectures.

"Graves's Lectures are indispensably necessary to the biblical student."—Horne.

"Dean Graves's Lectures are a work of learning and merit. It examines very minutely the authenticity and truth of the Mosaic History, and the theological and moral principles of the Jewish Law; and replies at great length, to the most plausible objections. With Dr. Geddes, in particular, he maintains a very determined conflict, and exposes, very successfully, the infidel reasonings of that arrogant writer. He also frequently combats Le Clerc and Warburton. Dr. Graves's Essay on the Character of the Apostles and Evangelists, designed to prove that they were not enthusiasts, is a book which deserves to be consulted."—Orme.

GREENHILL'S EXPOSITION OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL, with a brief Notice of the Author; one large vol. impl. 8vo. extra cloth bds. £1. 1s 1839

The author was one of the Westminster Assembly of Divines. "Like all the productions of the Puritans, this Exposition is evangelical, stored with great knowledge of the Scriptures, and distinguished by its sound doctrinal and practical views."—Horne.

GROTIUS ON THE TRUTH OF THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION, with 2 additional Books, and Notes by Le Clerc, translated by Clarke, 12mo. cloth lettered, (pub. at 4s 6d) reduced to 3s 1825

HALL'S (BISHOP) ENTIRE WORKS, with an Account of his Life and Sufferings. New Edition, with considerable Additions, a Translation of all the Latin Pieces, and a Glossary, Indices, and Notes, by the Rev. Peter Hall, 12 vols. 8vo. portrait, extra cloth, lettered, (pub. at £7. 4s) reduced to £5.

Orford, Talboys, 1837-39

"The glowing, the tender, the pathetic eloquence of a Hall, who, with the spirit of a saint, could strew some holy text upon every trivial event of life, and find 'sermons in stones, and good in everything.'"—Quarterly Review.

"This is by far the best edition of the works of the Christian Seneca." The learned editor, a descendant of the Bishop, has inserted several excellent pieces not published in any former edition; has verified and enlarged the references, added many valuable notes, and above all, a complete index of texts.

"Dr. Hall's writings abound in richness of fancy, and eloquent bursts of feeling. They manifest a piety, humble, fervid, and sincere; a Theory of Christian morals, forbidding and practical; and Views of a future existence, animating, elevating, and sublime."—British Critic.

"Bishop Hall has been entitled the Christian Seneca; his knowledge of the world, depth of thought, and elegance of expression, place him nearer our own times than any of his contemporaries, whilst he adorned his age by learning, piety, and the uniform exercise of all the Christian graces. It would, indeed, be difficult to mention a prelate of more excellent character."—Chalmers.

"Imaginative and copious eloquence, terse and pointed sentences, full of piety and devotion. Few writers so useful to divinity students. Let them thoroughly read and digest him, and they will be 'arushed for most of the calls upon them.'"

Bickersteth.
 "During this period, two men of genius contributed by the spirit and energy of their discourses, to maintain the credit of the orthodox pulpit—these were Hall and Taylor: the former gifted with all the inspiration of poetry, and all the severity of a chastised judgment; in his style, quaint, rather than pedantic; in his sense, clear, manly, and original."

Quarterly Review, vol. xiv. pp. 248, 249.

— CONTEMPLATIONS upon the Historical

Passages of the Old and New Testaments, new edition, revised and corrected, by the Rev. Peter Hall, 2 vols. 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 4s) reduced to 15s Oxford, Talboys, 1837

"Incomparably valuable for language, criticism, and devotion."—Horne.

— HARD TEXTS OF THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS, Plainly and Familiarly Explained, by way of Paraphrase, new and corrected edition, by the Rev. Peter Hall, 2 vols. 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 4s) reduced to 15s Oxford, Talboys, 1837

"These expository notes are very valuable, especially for shewing the spirit and force of many expressions that occur."—Horne.

HALLS (THE REV. ROBERT) COMPLETE WORKS, with a Memoir of his Life by Dr. Olinthus Gregory, and Observations on his Character as a Preacher, by John Foster, Author of Essays on Popular Ignorance, &c. 6 vols. 8vo. handsomely printed, with beautiful portrait, in extra cloth boards, contents lettered, (pub. at £3. 16s) reduced to £2. 2s 1845

— the same, printed in a smaller size, 6 vols. fcp. 8vo. cloth lettered, £1. 1s 1844

"Whoever wishes to see the English language in its perfection must read the writings of that great Divine, Robert Hall. He combine the beauties of Johnson, Addison, and Burke, without their imperfections."—DUGALD STEWART.

"I cannot do better than refer the academic reader to the immortal works of Robert Hall. For moral grandeur, for Christian truth, and for sublimity, we may doubt whether they have their match in the sacred oratory of any age or country."—PROP. SEDGWICK (in his Discourse on the Studies of the University.)

"The Sermons and Discourses of Robert Hall are wonderful compositions."

"The bold diction, the majestic gait of the sentence, the vivid illustration, the rebuke which could scathe the offender, the burst of honest indignation at triumphant vice, the biting sarcasm, the fervid appeal to the heart, the sagacious development of principle, the broad field of moral vision—all these distinguish the compositions of Robert Hall, and we bear our most willing testimony to their worth."—Quarterly Review.

"In the Eloquence of the pulpit, Robert Hall comes nearer Massillon than either Cæcæ or Eschæchus to Demosthenes."—LORD BROUGHAM.

"His mind is little to be envied, if from the perusal of Robert Hall, he do not find himself a more accomplished, a wiser, and a better man."

Church of England Quarterly Review.

"Mr. Hall, like Sp. Taylor, has the eloquence of an orator, the fancy of a poet, the acuteness of a schoolman, the profoundness of a philosopher, and the piety of a saint."—PARR (Special Sermon.)

"The excellence of Mr. Hall does not consist in the predominance of one of his powers, but in the exquisite proportion and harmony of all. The richness, variety, and extent of his knowledge, are not less remarkable than his absolute mastery over it. His style is one of the clearest and simplest—the least encumbered with its own beauty—of any which ever has been written."—CHAS. LAMB (London Magazine.)

"The name of Robert Hall will be placed by posterity among the best writers of the age, as well as the most vigorous defenders of Religious truth, and the brightest examples of Christian charity."

SIR J. MACKINTOSH.

HARCOURT'S (THE REV. VERNON) DOCTRINE OF THE DELUGE, 2 vols. 8vo. extra cloth boards, (pub. at £1. 16s) reduced to 10s 6d Longman, 1838

"The object of this very learned, pious, and interesting work is to pursue the traditional memorials of the ark through the pages of pagan mythology. Those who have not bent their studies that way, are not aware what a mass of evidence is to be collected from the most unsuspected sources in corroboration of the Mosaic Deluge. We consider Mr. Harcourt's researches as most valuable, totally apart from all considerations of philosophy. To those who have a taste for such learned inquiries as have immortalized the venerable name of Jacob Bryant above all modern scholars in this department of antiquity, we recommend a perusal of Mr. Harcourt's book, in which they will see much additional light thrown on many of the subjects discussed, from information inaccessible to Bryant—the produce of later studies and inquiries. Nor can we omit to mention, with great satisfaction, an Historical Treatise on Baptismal Regeneration, which closes the second volume, and which we should like to see separately published."—Genl's Mag.

HENRY'S (MATTHEW) COMMENTARY ON THE BIBLE, BICKERSTETH'S EDITION, in 6 vols. 4to. new edition, printed on fine paper, (pub. at £9. 9s) reduced to £4. 14s 6d 1846

HOPKINS'S (BISHOP) WHOLE WORKS, with a Memoir of the Author, in one thick vol. royal 8vo. cloth lettered, (pub. at 18s) reduced to 14s 1841

— the same, with a very extensive general Index of Texts and Subjects, 2 vols. royal 8vo. cloth lettered, (pub. at £1. 4s) reduced to 18s 1841

"Bishop Hopkins's Works form of themselves a sound body of divinity. He is clear, vehement, and persuasive."—Bickersteth.

"The merits of Bishop Hopkins are well known to Theologians, although perhaps not so universally as might be wished. We have often heard of the superiority of the theology of our older authors to that of our more modern Divines; and certainly never have we seen the superiority more strikingly shewn than in the works of Hopkins. Whatever be the nature of the subject on which he treats, his hand is instantly seen to be that of a master: throughout we find a strength of thought an originality of illustration, a force and felicity of style, a homely raciness of expression, which command perpetual attention. There do not exist manuals of Christian duty more searching in their knowledge of the human heart, more comprehensive in their application to all the situations and contingencies of life, than his 'Exposition of the Ten Commandments,' and the 'Exposition of the Lord's Prayer.' These taken in connection with his other works, form in themselves a body of Divinity, the possession of which alone would enrich the library of a household."—The Witness.

HILL (REV. ROWLAND) MEMOIRS OF THE, by his Friend, the Rev. W. JONES, edited, with a Preface, by the Rev. JAMES SHERMAN, (Rowland Hill's Successor, as Minister of Surrey Chapel.) Second Edition, carefully revised, thick post 8vo. fine steel portrait, extra cloth, (pub. at 10s 6d) reduced to 5s 1845

HOWE'S WORKS, with Life by CALAMY, one large vol. imperial 8vo. portrait, cloth lettered, (pub. at £1. 16s) reduced to £1. 10s 1838

"I have learned far more from John Howe, than from any other author I ever read. There is an astonishing magnificence in his conceptions. He was unquestionably the greatest of the puritan divines." Robert Hall.

— LIVING TEMPLE, or a designed Improvement of the Idea, that a Good Man is the Temple of God. To which are added Discourses on Self Dedication, and on yielding ourselves to God, 18mo. portrait, cloth extra, (pub. at 4s) reduced to 2s 1845

HUNTER'S SACRED BIOGRAPHY, a Series of Lectures on Scripture Characters, with an Introduction by the Rev. Alexander Watterson, one large vol. imperial 8vo. extra cloth, 12s 1840

"A truly fascinating work. Dr. Hunter was a man of learning; his writings are eloquent, and show how well he had studied human nature."—Chalmers.

HUNTINGDON'S (COUNTESS OF) LIFE AND TIMES, by a Member of the Houses of Shirley and Hastings. Sixth Thousand, with a copious Index, 2 large vols. 8vo. portraits of the Countess, Whitefield, and Wesley; extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 4s) reduced to 14s 1844

"This Memoir is not only absorbingly interesting as a Narrative, but it is indispensable to the historian, developing, as it does, the origin and progress of the most important and influential denominations of Dissenters at the present day; as well as the effects produced by her Ladyship's indefatigable zeal in the cause of religion.

"These volumes are destined to a lengthened popularity. They will be read by the serious for their religious tendency, and the light which they throw upon the earlier days of the Methodists and other classes of Dissenters, whilst to those fond of the fashionable gossip of Courts passed away, they present an ample fund of amusement and instruction."—Advertiser.

"The work is invaluable; and any one who should now attempt to write the religious history of the eighteenth century, would be but ill qualified for his task, if he had not previously made himself acquainted with the Life of the Countess of Huntingdon."—Courier.

"We have seldom read a more interesting work. Its extraordinary mass of anecdote and personal history will afford no ordinary degree of amusement to the general reader."—Argus.

"A very curious memoir, perhaps one of the most curious that has for a long time issued from the press. The reader must not suppose that this Life of Lady Huntingdon is a mere narrative of ministerial transactions—a history of a sect, its struggles and its progress: on the contrary, it deals most with the open day-light world of action, embraces notices of some of the most distinguished men of the times, and develops, in the account of Lady Huntingdon herself, a character remarkable for energy, strong sense, and living sympathies. It is a production of much greater interest than, at first sight, we anticipated."—Atlas.

"This is a most interesting work, and cannot fail to become highly popular. It is exciting intense interest, and will doubtless lead us to form a correct estimate of the character and opinions of that most extraordinary woman."—Durham Advertiser.

ILLUSTRATED COMMENTARY ON THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS, chiefly explanatory of the Manners and Customs mentioned in the Sacred Scriptures, and also of the History, Geography, Natural History, and Antiquities; being a RE-PUBLICATION of the NOTES of the PICTORIAL BIBLE, 5 vols. post 8vo. with upwards of 600 fine wood-cuts, gilt cloth, (pub. at £1. 17s 6d) reduced to £1. 5s 1840

"The explanatory notes and illustrations of the 'Pictorial Bible' are here printed separate from the text, so as to form a complete work, serving as a companion to any edition of the Bible. The five volumes contain a great body of information, gleaned from a variety of sources, many of which are of recent discovery, on the habits and manners of the Arabs and Egyptians; the pictures in the tombs of Thebes furnishing accurate representations of the costumes, &c. of ancient Egypt; and the accounts of travellers describing the modes of life among the Arabs, which have undergone no change. Every allusion to local circumstances or national customs is elucidated by descriptions and pictures of the face of the country, buildings, plants, animals, dress, implements of trade, husbandry, and war, &c.; the statements being confined to facts."—Spectator.

IRELAND'S (Dean of Westminster) PAGANISM AND CHRISTIANITY COMPARED, in a Course of Lectures to the King's Scholars at Westminster, 2nd edition, 8vo. extra cloth bds. (pub. at 12s) reduced to 4s 6d Murray, 1825
"An able, learned, and instructive work."—British Critic.

JEBBS' DIVINE ECONOMY OF THE CHURCH, 12mo. extra cloth bds. (pub. at 6s) reduced to 4s 6d Duwan, 1840

"An excellent little volume. We like the manner in which the author has explained the principle of Church communion, vindicated the authority of the Church, and then deduced the necessity of conformity to her worship, and obedience to her commands; while his observations on the religious duties demanded of her children are enforced with cogent reasoning and affectionate exhortation. The volume does credit to the talents of the author, and we think might advantageously be used, in many of its parts, in the pulpit."—Gent's Mag.

"A thoughtful, perspicuous, and beautiful comment on the Articles of the Holy Catholic Church, and the Communion of Saints."—British Critic.

JENKYN'S EXPOSITION OF THE EPISTLE OF JUDE, AND MANTON'S PRACTICAL EXPOSITION OF THE EPISTLE OF JAMES, with brief Notices of the Authors; 1 large vol. impl. 8vo. extra cloth bds. 16s 1839-40 Or separately, Jenkyn, 10s 6d—Manton, 7s

"Jenkyn and Manton, published nearly at the same time, and with similar views, are both useful."—Rev. E. Tischersteth.

"A book yet in high request."—Chalmers.

Archbishop Usher used to say, that Manton "had the art of reducing the substance of whole volumes into a narrow compass, and representing it to great advantage."

KELTY'S RELIGION OF THE HEART, exemplified in Memorials of Madame Guyon, Fenelon, and other Spiritual Persons, with Extracts from their Works illustrative of interior Religion, fcap. 8vo. cloth gilt, (pub. at 5s) reduced to 2s 6d 1844

This will be found a very pleasing volume to seriously disposed persons.

KELTY'S MEMOIRS OF THE LIVES AND PERSECUTIONS OF THE PRIMITIVE QUAKERS, exemplifying the Obedience of Faith in some of the early Members of the Society of Friends. Second edition, thick post 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at 7s 6d) reduced to 5s 1844

"We have rarely looked into a contribution to the Library of Dissent, more qualified by its earnestness, and by the absence of all that is offensive, to meet with acceptance among the Orthodox—nay more, to penetrate those large masses of the reading world who take no particular ism under their protection, and can only be interested by details illustrating the feelings and characteristics common to humanity. Mary Anne Kelty's book may, we think, be perused with interest, as a record of the early struggles of a body of conscientious men, apart from the peculiar doctrines it is intended to enforce and illustrate."—Athenæum.

KNOWLES'S (REV. T.) SHORT AND PLAIN DISCOURSES for the Use of Families, 3 vols. post 8vo. cloth lettered, (pub. at 17s 6d) reduced to 6s 1822

LARDNER'S (DR. NATHANIEL) WORKS, containing Credibility of the Gospel History, Jewish and Heathen Testimonies, History of Heretics, and Sermons and Tracts, with Life of the Author, by Dr. Kippis, 10 vols. 8vo. best edition, extra cloth lettered, (pub. at £5. 5s) reduced to £4. 4s 1838

"The publication of Dr. Lardner's works constituted a new era in the Annals of Christianity: for by collecting a mass of scattered evidence in favour of the authenticity of Evangelical History, he established a bulwark on the side of truth which infidelity has never presumed to attack."—Horne.

LAWSON'S HISTORY OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF SCOTLAND, from the Reformation to the present time, 2 thick vols. 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 10s) reduced to 15s —HISTORY OF THE SCOTTISH EPISCOPAL CHURCH FROM THE REFORMATION TO THE REVOLUTION OF 1688, (being the early portion of the preceding work sold separately) 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at 15s) reduced to 7s 6d
1843-4

These two volumes form a most complete and authentic History of the Episcopal Church of Scotland from the Reformation, including the exciting reigns of James I., Charles I., Charles II., and James II., the whole derived from valuable MSS., records, rare works, and other authentic sources. Many curious and interesting details are given of the true ecclesiastical state of Scotland in the Seventeenth century not hitherto published.

“Mr. Lawson’s work has made its appearance at the right time, and will be read with great interest. The narrative of the dis-establishment of the Scottish Episcopal Church at the Revolution, is a tale of suffering that has been seldom exceeded in these latter days of the Church.”—Oxford Herald.

“The History of the Episcopal Church of Scotland, in its close connection with the annals of Scottish Presbyterianism, is one of the most edifying episodes that ecclesiastical records present to our notice. Mr. Lawson has shewn great ability, industry, and impartiality in his labours.”—Church and State Gazette, May 19, 1843.

LEE (PROFESSOR) ON THE STUDY OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURES; their Nature, Interpretation, and some of their most important Doctrines; in Six Sermons, preached before the University of Cambridge in 1827-8; to which are annexed Two Dissertations. 1. On the Reasonableness of the Orthodox Views of Christianity, as opposed to the Rationalism of Germany; 2. On the Interpretation of Prophecy generally, with an Original Exposition of the Book of Revelation, shewing that the whole of that remarkable Prophecy has long ago been fulfilled, 8vo. extra cloth boards, (pub. at 14s) reduced to 7s

LEIGHTON'S (ARCHBISHOP) WHOLE WORKS; to which is prefixed a Life of the Author, by the Rev. T. N. Pearson. New Edition, 2 thick vols. 8vo. portrait, extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 4s) reduced to 16s

THE ONLY COMPLETE EDITION.

—COMMENTARY ON PETER; with Life by Pearson, complete, in one thick handsomely printed vol. 8vo. portrait, extra cloth, (pub. at 12s) reduced to 9s
1846

“I cannot sufficiently express the delight and edification which I have found in the writings of this wonderful man, for such I must deliberately call him. I can hardly forbear saying, as a considerable philosopher and eminent divine said to me in a letter long ago, ‘there is a spirit in Archbishop Leighton I never met in any human writings; nor can I read many lines in them without being moved.’ His works ought to be reckoned among the greatest treasures of the English tongue; they continually overflow with love to God, and breathe an heat entirely transformed by the Gospel, and above the views of everything but pleasing God.”—Dr. Dalbridge.

“Abp. Leighton had the greatest elevation of soul, the largest compass of knowledge, the most mortified and most heavenly disposition that I ever yet saw in mortal; that had the greatest piety, as well as virtues, with the purest humility, that I ever saw in man.”—Bp. Burnet.

“There is no expository work in the English language equal to Leighton’s Exposition of Peter. It is rich in evangelical sentiment, exalted devotion, and admirable illustration. There is learning without its parade, theology divested of systematic stiffness, and eloquence in a beautiful flow of unaffected language and appropriate imagery. To say more would be unbecoming, and less could not be said with justice.”—Orme.

“Mr. Pearson’s edition of Abp. Leighton is an excellent one. All parties agree in commendation of this celebrated divine.”—Lowndes.

“Abp. Leighton is an incomparable writer, full of the deepest evangelical devotion, with the best taste. His praise is in all the churches. He is one of the very first divines of the British church, whose writings breathe throughout the spirit of devotion, a noble strain of deep piety, a most humble, heavenly, and loving spirit, an elegant mind and a scriptural standard of evangelical doctrine.—HIS LIFE, BY MR. PEARSON, IS A DELIGHTFUL PIECE OF BIOGRAPHY.”—The Rev. E. Bickersteth.

LETTERS ON THE WRITINGS OF THE FATHERS OF THE FIRST TWO CENTURIES, (Clement, Barnabas, Irenæus, Ignatius, Polycarp, Justin Martyr, Irenæus,) with Reflections on the Oxford Tracts, and Strictures on “The Records of the Church,” by Misopapisticus, crown 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at 5s 6d) reduced to 3s

LIFE AND DEFENCE OF THE CONDUCT AND PRINCIPLES OF THE VENERABLE AND CALUMNIATED BISHOP BONNER, in which is considered the best mode of again Changing the Religion of this Nation, by a Tractarian British Critic, (Prebendary Tremyard) 8vo. extra cloth (pub. at 10s 6d) reduced to 4s 6d

“This ironical life and defence of Bishop Bonner is an exposure of the Romish tendency of the Oxford Tracts, and is written throughout with ability and learning. There is no doubt that the author has damaged the party he has attacked.”—Athenæum.

“An ironical polemical defence of Bishop Bonner; under the mask of justifying, it bitterly condemns the Romish Church and its professors, Puseyites. It shows considerable reading, and is very clever.”—Literary Gazette.

“The aim of the writer has been carried out with great skill, great ability, and great effect. The sarcasm is always biting; the very difficult point of the double character, is well sustained; and the style is strong and polished without any appearance of labour.”—Spectator.

LUTHER’S COMMENTARY ON THE PSALMS OF DEGREES, to which is prefixed a copious Historical Account of Monastic Life in England, 8vo. plate of monastic habits, cloth lettered (pub. at 10s 6d) reduced to 5s

MATTHEW (REV. G.) SERMONS ON DOCTRINE AND PRACTICE, by the Rev. George Mathew, Vicar of Greenwich, and alternate morning Preacher at St. James's, Fifth Edition, 2 vols. 8vo. in extra cloth boards, (pub. at 18s) reduced to 7s 6d 1834

Few Preachers have enjoyed greater popularity in London, or its vicinity, than the late Rev. George Mathew, many years Vicar of Greenwich, and alternate Morning Preacher at St. James's. Four large editions of his sermons were sold in a very short time. They are remarkable specimens of close and perspicuous argument, arranged with great clearness, and enforced with extraordinary ability.

"Mr. Mathew's Sermons display every excellence we could wish; all that can instruct the ignorant, confirm the wavering, or alarm the vicious: they cannot be read without advantage. He has been eminently successful in reducing Butler's Analogy to the level of the meanest capacity, and in giving a luminous precis of his arguments."—British Critic.

"A condensed and able summary of the arguments adduced by the best writers on the Evidences of Christianity."—Athenæum.

"This publication meets the sophisms of infidelity, as they now appear, upon right principles and with sound judgment. The three Essays which constitute the volume have severally obtained the Norrisian and Hulsean prizes at Cambridge, which is a sufficient testimony in its favour."—British Mag.

"How many have thanked God for the hour that first made them acquainted with the writings of Hannah More. She did perhaps as much real good in her generation as any woman that ever held the pen.

It would be idle for us to dwell here on works so well known. They have established her name as a great moral writer, possessing a masterly command over the resources of our language, and devoting a keen wit and a lively fancy to the best and noblest of purposes."

Quarterly Review.

Horace Walpole declared that Hannah More was not only one of the cleverest of women, but one of the best. Her writings, said he, promote virtue, and their repeated editions prove their worth and utility.

Cecil says, "if we must have commentators, as we certainly must, Pool is incomparable, and I had almost said, abundant of himself," and the Rev. E. Bickersteth pronounces the annotations to be judicious and full. It is no mean praise of this valuable work that it is in the list of books recommended to clergymen by Dr. Tomline. It is likewise recommended by Gilpin, Bp. E. Williams, Adam Clarke, Doddridge, Horne, and the learned in general.

PORTEUSS'S (BISHOP) WORKS, with his life, by the Rev. Robert Hodgson, Dean of Carlisle, 6 vols. 8vo. extra gilt cloth, (pub. at £2. 10s) reduced to £1. 5s 1823

— SERMONS, 2 vols. 8vo. cloth, (pub. at 16s) reduced to 10s 6d

"Bishop Porteus was a light in his generation and to posterity; and an ornament to the times in which he lived.

"His sermons are conspicuous for sound judgment, solid argument, great knowledge of the human heart, accurate observation of the world, an unshrinking reprobation of vice, the most persuasive exhortations to piety, and an unqualified avowal of all the essential, fundamental truths and doctrines of the Gospel."

Eclectic Review.

"It is creditable to the public taste that his writings should have acquired this high popularity; for their excellencies both as to matter and style well deserve it."

Quarterly Review.

RIDGELEY'S BODY OF DIVINITY, wherein the Doctrines of the Christian Religion are explained and defended, complete in 2 vols. impl. 8vo. portrait, extra cloth, £1. 4s 1844

"It is probable that the English language does not furnish a work of this nature that, for perspicuity of language, extent of research, accuracy of judgment, and judicious description, any way equals this of Dr. Ridgeley. He was a man of extensive and sound learning, of remarkable diligence, and a strict economist of his time. His skilful knowledge of the learned languages, large acquaintance with ancient and modern writers, and critical knowledge of the sacred volume, rendered him well qualified for theological controversy."

Wilson.

"His lectures display soundness of judgment, extensive learning, and an intimate acquaintance with the sacred oracles."—Bohuc.

SANDERSON'S (BISHOP) SERMONS, with Life of the Author by Isaac Walton; and an Introductory Essay by the Rev. Robert Montgomery, 2 vols. 8vo. extra cloth bds. (pub. at £1. 4s) reduced to 14s 1841

"No library which admits the Sermons of Barrow, Tillotson, and Jeremy Taylor, should be without those of that great divine Bishop Sanderson."

Dr. Hammond has observed that, "Sanderson conceives all things deliberately, speaks upon them discreetly, discerns things that differ exactly, passeth his judgement rationally, and expresses it aptly, clearly and honestly." Dr. Wotton says, "What Bp. Sanderson has written is all gold, and thoroughly refined." And the Rev. E. Bickersteth observes, "Sanderson was a man of great reflection and judgment, and his works abound with important discussions and decisions."

"There are no sermons more valuable for study, or more to be recommended to a young divine for their sound doctrine and admirable matter, than Bishop Sanderson's."—Ecclesiastical Journal.

SLATER'S (DR. WILLIAM) ORIGINAL DRAUGHT OF THE PRIMITIVE CHURCH, new edition, corrected, with the Quotations from the Fathers and Old Divines, given at length, 12mo. cloth lettered, (pub. at 6s) reduced to 3s 6d Oxford, Talboys, 1840

This is the reprint of a very rare and highly appreciated work. The author is mentioned by Chalmers, Wood, and others, as one of the most learned and judicious Divines of his time; and Bickersteth says that "these two valuable words have exhausted this important subject," speaking of Slater and King.

SCOTT'S (W.) HARMONY OF PHRENOLOGY WITH SCRIPTURE; to which is added, a Refutation of the Philosophical Errors contained in Combe's 'Constitution of Man,' second edition, post 8vo. cloth, (pub. at 6s 6d) reduced to 3s 6d Edin. 1837

SCOTT'S (REV. THOS.) PRACTICAL COMMENTARY ON THE BIBLE, for the Use of Families, 2 large and closely printed vols. impl. 8vo. extra cloth bds. (pub. at £1. 16s) reduced to 18s Seeley, 1834

Mr. Bickersteth suggested the publication of this condensed edition of Scott's celebrated Commentary, observing that "a practical Commentary on the Scriptures, written with the soundness of Scott, and within a moderate compass for the use of families, was still a desideratum."

— SERMONS, including two on the Duties of the Pastoral Office; with Memoir of his Life by the Rev. S. King, 8vo. handsomely printed, cloth lettered, (pub. at 10s 6d) reduced to 4s Seeley, 1837

SCOTT'S (REV. THOS.) COMMENTARY ON THE HOLY BIBLE, genuine trade edition, with the Author's last Corrections and Improvements, and numerous beautiful wood-cut illustrations, and maps, the complete work in 3 vols. impl. 8vo. extra cloth lettered, (pub. at £4. 4s) reduced to £2. 12s 6d Seeley, &c.

"An original, sound, evangelical, and practical Commentary, with a vast collection of parallels."

Bickersteth.
"The capital excellency of this valuable and immense undertaking, perhaps, consists in following more closely than any other, the fair and adequate meaning, of every part of Scripture, without regard to the niceties of human systems; it is, in every sense of the expression, a Scriptural comment. It has likewise a further and a strong recommendation in its originality. Every part of it is thought out by the author for himself, not borrowed from others. The later editions, indeed, are enriched with brief and valuable quotations from several writers of credit—but the substance of the work is entirely his own. It is not a compilation, it is an original production, in which you have the deliberate judgments of a masculine and independent mind on all the parts of Holy Scripture. Every student will understand the value of such a work. Further, it is the comment of our age, presenting many of the best lights which history casts on the interpretation of prophecy, giving several of the remarks which sound criticism has accumulated from the different branches of sacred literature, obviating the chief objections which modern annotators have advanced against some of the distinguishing doctrines of the Gospel, and adapting the instructions of Scripture to the peculiar circumstances of the times in which we live. . . . The commentator's eminent characteristics were a matured knowledge, skill as a textuary, sterling honesty, a firm grasp of truth, unfeigned submission of mind to every part of the inspired records, a holy temper of heart, unfeigned diligence, and perseverance."—Horne.

SCRIPTURE GENEALOGIES, containing 38 beautifully executed Lithographic Drawings, of all the Genealogies recorded in the Sacred Scriptures, according to every Family and Tribe; with the Line of our Saviour Jesus Christ observed from Adam to the Virgin Mary, by J. P. Morris, Esq. royal 4to. extra cloth, gilt on sides, (pub. at £1. 11s 6d) reduced to 7s 6d

This elegant work will be found curious and interesting to the theological reader. It not only contains tastefully engraved plates of every genealogy, family, tribe, etc. mentioned in the Holy Scriptures, but also drawings of the tabernacle, and plans of the Camp of the Israelites, and City of Jerusalem, with explanations. An edition of only 500 cost the author upwards of 500 guineas getting up, and although printed several years ago, it has not hitherto been published.

SHEPPARD'S FAMILY PRAYERS, for Morning and Evening Devotion, selected exclusively from the Works of the Elder Divines of the Established Church, and accompanied by the author's name to each Prayer, 12mo. extra cloth bds. (pub. at 6s) reduced to 3s 6d 1827

The Rev. John Sheppard is the well-known Minister of Blackheath Chapel.

SIDNEY'S (REV. E.) LIFE OF SIR RICHARD HILL, BART., (Brother of Rowland Hill) 8vo. extra cloth bds. (pub. at 12s) reduced to 5s 1839

"A better man than Sir Richard Hill I do not know within the circle of human nature."—Lord Kenyon

"Sir Richard Hill's life was a pattern of modesty, piety, and goodness."—Lord Erskine.

SIMEON'S WORKS, including his SKELETONS OF SERMONS AND HOME LECTURES or Discourses digested into one continued Series, and forming a Commentary upon every Book of the Old and New Testament: to which are annexed an improved edition of Claude's Essay on the Composition of a Sermon, and very comprehensive

Indexes, edited by the Rev. Thomas Hartwell Horne, 21 vols. 8vo. extra cloth, contents lettered, (pub. at £10. 10s) reduced to £7. 7s

The following miniature editions of Simeon's popular works are uniformly printed in 32mo. and bound in cloth:—

The Christian's Armour, (pub. at 1s) reduced to 9d

The Excellency of the Liturgy, (pub. at 1s) reduced to 9d

The Offices of the Holy Spirit, (pub. at 1s) reduced to 9d

Humiliation of the Son of God: in Twelve Sermons, (pub. at 1s) reduced to 9d

Appeal to Men of Wisdom and Candour, (pub. at 1s) reduced to 9d

Discourses on Behalf of the Jews, (pub. at 2s) reduced to 1s 6d

Claude's Essay on the Composition of a Sermon, edited by Simeon and the Rev. T. Hartwell Horne, with an Analytical Index, 8vo. stiff covers, in the Press, 2s 6d

"The works of Simeon, containing 2536 discourses on the principal passages of the Old and New Testament will be found peculiarly adapted to assist the studies of the younger clergy in their preparation for the pulpit; they will likewise serve as a Body of Divinity; and are by many recommended as a Biblical Commentary, well adapted to be read in families. Subjoined are, a General Index, a Liturgical Index, and an Index of Sermons, as also an improved edition, with an analytical Index, of Claude's Essay on the Composition of a Sermon. The work may truly be said to form a THEOLOGICAL ENCYCLOPEDIA."—Lovells.

"Simeon's works are a monument of pastoral labour and piety, with much judgment on doctrinal subjects, and useful practical application."—Bickersteth.

"One of the noblest offerings that consecrated hand ever laid on the altar. Let a Clergyman about to expound a chapter orally, study it in Doddridge, or Henry, or Scott, or Girdlestone; and then let him go over the same chapter with Simeon, and we think that, notwithstanding all the admitted excellencies of the former writers, the last will furnish out the best appointed champion."—Christian Remembrancer.

"Simeon's Discourses comprise a comment on nearly the whole of the Holy Scriptures, and exceed in copiousness, as a storehouse of sound hortatory theology, any production of the same kind that had been previously given to the work."

"These outlines compose a series of regularly digested and supremely important topics of Christian divinity. As helps to composition they will be peculiarly serviceable to young clergymen, and also to the more aged, whose extensive employment incapacitates them from supplying as fast as they can expend."

"We recommend these volumes most cordially to the attention of the younger members of the clerical profession; they will be found real helps to their inventive faculties."—Christian Observer.

SIMON'S "TEN TRIBES OF ISRAEL," historically identified—See Miscellanies.

SMYTH'S (REV. DR) EXPOSITION OF VARIOUS PASSAGES OF HOLY SCRIPTURE, adapted to the Use of Families, for every Day throughout the Year 3 vols. 8vo. handsomely printed, cloth lettered, (pub. at £1. 11s 6d) reduced to 12s Hatchard, 1842

"This Daily Expositor for Families is a happy idea, ably carried out. We recommend it with confidence to all families, certain that it cannot fail to be approved."

Theological Journal.

STACKS (DR.) LECTURES ON THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES, Explanatory and Practical, 8vo. 2nd edition, gilt cloth (pub. at 8s) reduced to 2s 6d 1805

These Lectures are formed upon the excellent model of those delivered by Bishop Porteus, upon the Gospel of St. Matthew. The work is dedicated to the Bishop, and was highly recommended by him.

SOUTH'S (DR. ROBERT) SERMONS: to which are annexed the chief heads of the Sermons, a Biographical Memoir, and General Index, 2 vols. royal 8vo. cloth lettered, (pub. at £1. 4s) reduced to 18s 1844

"The Sermons of this wittiest of English Divines will always rank among the standard productions of the English Church. They are adapted to all readers and to all days."—Retrospective Review.

"South's Sermons are invaluable—the staff of his spear is like a cæver's beam."—British Critic.

"South is conspicuous for sound practical good sense, for a deep insight into human character, for liveliness of imagination and exuberant invention, and unbounded wit. In perspicuity, copiousness, and force of expression, he is almost unrivalled among English writers. The sincerity of his principles is shewn in the purity of his life, and the vigour of his understanding is stamped on all that he wrote."—Penny Cyclopaedia.

STURM'S CONTEMPLATIONS ON THE SUFFERINGS OF CHRIST, in a Series of Devotional Exercises, with an explanatory Paraphrase of the Gospel Narrative, translated from the German by W. Johnstone, A.M., with a Memoir and Portrait, crown 8vo. cloth lettered, (pub. at 9s) reduced to 5s 1826

— REFLECTIONS ON THE WORKS OF GOD, and of his Providence throughout all Nature, translated from the German, complete in one elegantly printed volume, fcap. 12mo. frontispiece, extra cloth bds. (pub. at 5s) reduced to 3s 6d 1836

TAYLOR'S (JEREMY) COMPLETE WORKS, with an Essay, Biographical and Critical, 3 large vols. impl. 8vo. portrait, extra cloth bds. (pub. at £3. 15s) reduced to £3. 3s 1836

"Dr. Taylor has the eloquence of the orator, the fancy of the poet, the acuteness of the schoolman, the profoundness of the philosopher, and the piety of the saint."—Parr.

"We will venture to assert that there is in any one of the prose folios of Jeremy Taylor more fancy and original imagery, more brilliant conceptions and glowing expressions, more new figures, and new application of old figures; more, in short, of the body and the soul of poetry, than in all the odes and epics that have since been produced in Europe."—Edinburgh Review.

"Full of admirable observation. We believe that from this volume might be collected sufficient materials to strike any ordinary mind with subjects of reflection for a year."—Literary Gazette.

"The author is a clever and a pious man, whose piety never makes him dull, and whose wit never borders on profaneness; his book is well written, and calculated to check the incipient disorders of the imagination, to give tone and firmness to the enfeebled powers of the sickly religionist, and to point out the difference between the beneficial glow of a well-ordered piety, and the pernicious fervours of a distempered fancy."—Brit. Critic.

"It is refreshing to us to meet with a work bearing as this unquestionably does, the impress of bold, powerful, and original thought. Its most strikingly original views, however, never transgress the bounds of pure Protestant orthodoxy, or violate the spirit of truth and soberness; and yet it discusses topics constituting the very root and basis of those furious polemics which have shaken repeatedly the whole intellectual and moral world."—Athenæum.

"A very able work."—Edinburgh Review.

TAYLOR'S (ISAAC) FANATICISM, third edition, carefully revised, fcap. 8vo. in extra cloth boards, 6s 1843

"It is the reader's fault, if he does not rise from the perusal of such a volume as the present a wiser and a better man."—Eclectic Review.

"The author is evidently a man of ardent piety, of a vivid imagination, and of a vigorous and exuberant understanding, and has a vast command of diction and of imagery. He is never dull. Dulness, indeed, is at the very antipodes of his manner. There is an intensity about the composition which keeps our faculties perpetually upon the stretch. The man, beyond all question, is a very distinguished writer."—Brit. Critic.

"We have no doubt that the present work will acquire the same popularity with the former productions of this author. He has displayed extensive research in a curious branch of religious history; the general character of his pages is moderate and impartial, as well as pious; he seems actuated by a sincere desire to heal, as far as in him lies, the breaches of the Christian commonwealth; and to point out as subjects of rational rejoicing those few steps which the world seems to have gained in its dark and vacillating progress towards better and nobler views of religion."—Edinburgh Review.

Devout persons, whose leisure permits them to do so, are accustomed to devote the SATURDAY EVENING to preparatory meditation. The author says "The meditations in the present volume are intended to bear, more or less directly, upon those changes in religious practices or modes of feeling, which naturally are thought of as proper to usher in a brighter age."

"This is a work which we feel confident the religious public will receive with something more than approbation,—with deference and gratitude.—Admitted to his Saturday Evening retirement, we listen to his discourse as that, not of a professional lecturer, or a disputant of this world, but of one who, having held converse with the true fountain of wisdom, opens to us his private thoughts in the tones of friendship. The volume is replete, not merely with thought, but with materials for thinking,—with germinant seeds that, where they find the right soil, cannot fail to reproduce a harvest of thoughts in other minds. It is in some respects adapted to be the most popular of his productions, as it is certainly the most powerful. The style sometimes kindles into the most vehement and lofty eloquence. The paper on 'The Means of Mercy' is one of the most finely sustained argumentative appeals, in illustration of the Divine scheme of Justification, that we have ever seen. We might specify other papers scarcely less striking. Upon the whole, the volume cannot fail to make a very powerful impression, and it cannot be more favourably received than it deserves to be."

Eclectic Review.
" 'SATURDAY EVENING,' and 'NATURAL HISTORY OF ENTHUSIASM,' are two noble productions."
Blackwood's Magazine.

TAYLOR'S (ISAAC) ELEMENTS OF THOUGHT, or concise explanations, alphabetically arranged, of the principal terms employed in the usual branches of intellectual Philosophy, seventh edition, 12mo. in extra cloth boards, 4s 1845

"The design of this volume is to impart, in a familiar form, elementary explanations and instructions on subjects connected with the intellectual faculties; to afford gradual and easy exercises to the powers of abstraction, and thus to conduct the young reader by an accessible path into that region of thought where the mind acquires force, accuracy, and comprehension.

It is an admirable condensation of all that has been written or said on the subject, and a most useful introduction to the study of Metaphysics, while it contains as much knowledge on the subject as the general reader will require. "As an elementary work, it is truly valuable."—Monthly Review.

— ANCIENT CHRISTIANITY, and the Doctrines of the Oxford Tracts for the Times. Fourth Edition, with a Supplement and Indexes, 2 vols. 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 4s) reduced to 18s 1844

"He who wishes to see the subject of Puseyism fully handled may consult Mr. Isaac Taylor's able and elaborate work, entitled Ancient Christianity. This production has more than the author's usual excellencies. We cannot but regard it as a most valuable contribution to the cause of Scriptural Christianity; and highly creditable to his talents, energy, and learning."

Edin. Review, Apr. 1843.

"The most powerful opponent of the Oxford school who has yet appeared, is Isaac Taylor, the well-known author of the 'Natural History of Enthusiasm, &c.'"

American Biblical Repository.

"One of the most remarkable publications of the present age."—Churchman's Monthly Review.

"This is one of the most valuable works which have appeared in Theological Literature for many years, and gives quite a new aspect to the Patristic Controversy. It is a treasury of historical materials dug out of the crude masses of Ecclesiastical Antiquity; and will be indispensable to any one who, not having those ponderous tomes within his reach, wishes to form a judgment of the religion which succeeded, in the Nicene Age, to Apostolic Christianity."—Patriot.

— LECTURES ON SPIRITUAL CHRISTIANITY, 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at 4s 6d) reduced to 3s 1841

"The Lectures before us are among the best of the author's numerous works, whether considered in relation to their probable utility, or as exhibiting in a high degree the distinguishing excellencies of his mind. Probably the effect may be owing to the nature of the subject, and to our own predilections; but from the perusal of none of the author's other works have we risen with the same sense of pleasure and of profit, and the same high admiration of the writer's gifts and attainments. Our path is through a region of light,—the waymarks of truth are visible at every turn; and as we follow the stately steps of our accomplished guide, we have not only a sense of safety, but are charmed with the beauty of the scenes through which we pass."

"Shakespeare and Burke are, if I may venture on the expression, above talent. Burke was one of the first thinkers, as well as one of the greatest orators, of his time. He is without any parallel in any age or country, except perhaps Lord Bacon and Cicero, and his works contain an ampler store of political and moral wisdom than can be found in any other writer whatever."—Sir J. Mackintosh.

"The compositions of Burke are master-pieces. Who can withstand the fascination and magic of his eloquence? The excursions of his genius are immense. His imperial fancy has laid all nature under tribute, and has collected riches from every scene of the creation, and every walk of art. He who can read his works without pleasure must resign all pretensions to taste and sensibility."—Robert Hall.

Third Edition, with a Supplement; one very large vol. imperial 8vo. beautifully printed in small type in double columns by Whittingham, embellished with an elaborate frontispiece, richly illuminated in gold and colours; also woodcuts, extra cloth boards, full gilt back, (pub. at £2. 2s) reduced to £1. 5s 1844

The most elaborate and useful work of the kind ever published. It contains upwards of 30,000 armorial bearings, and incorporates all that have hitherto been given by Guillim, Edmondson, Collins, Nisbet, Berry, Robson, and others; besides many thousand names which have never appeared in any previous work. This volume, in fact, in a small compass, but without abridgment, contains more than four ordinary quartos.

This book is interesting to every man in society. The contents not being merely of the day, there is no danger of its becoming obsolete, but like its prototype Edmondson, it must always remain a library book.

BURNS' (ROBERT) COMPLETE POETICAL AND PROSE WORKS, including his RELIQUES, with an Account of his Life and Writings, and some Observations on the Character and Condition of the Scottish Peasantry, by James Currie, M.D. F.R.S., new edition, with considerable Additions, including further particulars of the Author's Life, and new Notes, illustrative of his Poems and Letters, by his brother, Gilbert Burns, 5 vols. 8vo. illustrated by fine portrait by Nasmyth, fac-simile of his hand-writing, and 16 beautiful engravings after the designs of Thomas Stothard, extra gilt cloth, (pub. at £3. 13s 6d) reduced to £1. 5s 1820

BURNS' WORKS, complete, with Life by Allan Cunningham, and Notes by Sir Walter Scott, Campbell, Wordsworth, Lockhart, &c. royal 8vo. fine portrait and plates, cloth lettered, uniform with Byron, (pub. at 18s) reduced to 10s 6d 1842

— the same, morocco extra, full gilt, £1.

This is positively the only complete edition of Burns, in a single volume, 8vo. It contains not only every scrap which Burns ever wrote, whether prose or verse, but also a considerable number of Scotch national airs, collected and illustrated by him (not given elsewhere) and full and interesting accounts of the occasions and circumstances of his various writings. The very complete and interesting Life by Allan Cunningham alone occupies 161 pages, and the Indices and Glossary are very copious. The whole forms a thick elegantly printed volume, extending in all to 818 pages. The other editions, including one published in similar shape, with an abridgement of the Life by Allan Cunningham, comprised in only 47 pages, and the whole volume in only 504 pages, do not contain above two-thirds of the above. It seems the more necessary to call attention to this fact, as the edition referred to has lately been put forth as "the only complete edition." Our minute's comparison will be sufficient to mislead in this respect.

CAMPBELL'S LIFE AND TIMES OF PETERARCH; with Notices of Boccaccio and his illustrious Contemporaries. Second Edition, 2 vols. 8vo. five portraits and plates, extra cloth (pub. at £1. 11s 6d) reduced to 12s 1843

"The standard life of Petrarch. The fortunes and career of the poet are traced with admirable distinctness; his devoted passion for Laura is finely developed and characterized; and his poetical character is analyzed and estimated with all the power of a kindred genius. This work must take its place in our libraries as one of the most interesting and important historical works of our time."—Athenæum.

"The works of Channing are among the noblest productions of the human mind, and the richest gifts of a bountiful God. Never since man was placed upon earth, has any one written with more of the spirit of truth and of love. His words are remarkable for fitness and beauty, his thoughts are the effulgence of the eternal light, and his feelings are the fullness of the heavenly life. It is impossible that his works should be read without profit. It is impossible that they should be universally diffused, without effecting a beneficent revolution amongst every class, and in every institution of society."

"Channing is unquestionably the finest writer of the age. From his writings may be extracted some of the richest poetry and richest conceptions, clothed in language, unfortunately for our literature, too little studied in the day in which we live."—

Fraser's Magazine.

"We warmly and heartily recommend Dr. Channing to the hands of every young man who is finishing his education, and to every general reader who earnestly seeks his own improvement."—Athenæum.

"The Sermons of Dr. Channing are astonishing productions, and deserve a high place in the library of every Divine throughout the world."—New Monthly

Murray, 1838-1840

"A production of greater historical interest could hardly be imagined. We have not seen another possessed of more varied and engrossing interest. Never did history offer more instructive lessons for present guidance than are contained in this correspondence. It is a standard work, which will directly pass into every library."—Literary Gazette

"Lord Chatham was the most powerful orator that ever illustrated and ruled the senate of this empire. For nearly half a century, he was not merely the arbiter of the destinies of his own country, but 'the foremost man in all the world.' He had an unparalleled grandeur and affluence of intellectual powers, softened and brightened by all the minor accomplishments; his ambition was noble; his views instinctively elevated; his patriotism all but excessive—and in all the domestic relations of life he was exemplary and amiable—a fine scholar, a finished gentleman, a sincere Christian—one whom his private friends and servants loved as a good man, and all the world admired as a great one."

Quarterly Review.

"There is hardly any man in modern times who fills so large a space in our history, and of whom we know so little as Lord Chatham; and yet he is the person to whom every one would at once point, it desired to name the greatest Statesman and Orator that this country ever produced. We regard this work, then, as one of the greatest value; and hold the editors (of whom his great-grandson and personal representative is one) to have rendered a great service to the memory of their illustrious ancestor, and to the public interests, by determining to keep back no part of these precious documents."—Edinburgh Review.

"The most instructive and engaging travels ever published in this country."—Lovendes.

"The splendour and celebrity of all travels, performed by Englishmen, have been exceeded by that of the late and deeply lamented Dr. Edward Clarke. Upon the whole, if Humboldt be the first, Clarke is the second traveller of the age."—Didion.

"We willingly pass over a host of minor and even respectable travellers, to journey in company with Dr. Clarke, whose strong powers of observation and eloquent and animated pictures both of art and nature have raised him to so high a rank among modern travellers. His profound skill in antiquities peculiarly qualified him for exploring the regions he principally traversed."—Murray's Hist. of Discoveries.

"This is one of the most delightful books that have ever come under our notice, and comprises the most valuable collection of Sonnets in our language."—Maidstone Gazette.

"We commend Mr. Housman's book with a warm panegyric to the public. It contains a perfect treasury of gems, and is one of the most chaste and delightful volumes in the whole range of our English anthologies."—Atlas.

COWPER'S COMPLETE WORKS, edited by SOUTHBY, comprising his Poems, Correspondence, and Translations, with a Life of the Author, 15 vols. post 8vo. beautifully printed by Whittingham, embellished with numerous exquisite engravings, after the designs of Harvey, elegantly bound in cloth (pub. at £3. 15s) reduced to £2. 12s 6d 1835-7

—the same, hf. bd. morocco, marbled edges, £4.

•• This is the only complete edition of Cowper which has ever been given to the world. The early Poems, addressed by Cowper to his cousin, Theodora Cowper, to whom he was attached, are exclusively copyright, and consequently cannot appear in any other edition. It contains all the letters which had been previously published, examined with the originals, and passages restored, that either from error in judgment, or reasons connected with individuals then living, were left out by Hayley, many of which passages are important, and highly illustrative of the mind of Cowper. It comprehends, in addition, upwards of One hundred and twenty letters never before printed in any shape, and of the most interesting description. In the Life of the Poet, Dr. Southey has introduced much of the Literary History of England during half a century, with Biographical Sketches of many of his contemporaries.

"Of Cowper how shall I express myself in adequate terms of admiration? The purity of his principles, the tenderness of his heart, his unaffected and zealous piety, his warmth of devotion, the delicacy and playfulness of his wit, and the singular felicity of his diction, all conspire by turns

"To win the wisest, warm the coldest heart."

Cowper is the poet of a well-educated and well-principled Englishman. "Home, sweet Home" is the scene—limited as it may be imagined—in which he contrives to concentrate a thousand beauties, which others have scattered far and wide upon objects of less interest and attraction. His pictures are, if I may so speak, conceived with all the tenderness of Raphael, and executed with all the finish and sharpness of Teniers. No man, in such few words, tells his tale, or describes his scene so forcibly and so justly. The popularity of Cowper gains strength as it gains age; and, after all, he is the poet of our study, our cabinet, and our alcove."—Dublin.

"There is not in the whole compass of English literature, a single writer, whose works, including his admirable Correspondence, deserve to be so generally infused (if we may be permitted the expression) into society, as those of Cowper."—Atlas.

"COWPER IS BY FAR THE MOST DELIGHTFUL LETTER-WRITER IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE."—Quarterly Review.

"The Letters of Mr. Cowper are the finest specimens of the epistolary style in our language. To an air of inimitable ease they unite a high degree of correctness, such as could result only from the clearest intellect, combined with the most finished taste. There is scarcely a single word capable of being exchanged for a better, and of literary errors there are none. I have perused them with great admiration and delight."—Robert Hall.

"The study of Cowper's prose will be found highly useful in forming the taste of young people."—Ibid.

"All the writings of Cowper bear the stamp of original genius, and remind us of the merits that have secured immortality to Shakspeare. It is impossible to read his productions without being delighted with his force, his brilliancy, and his variety."—Edinb. Review.

1834
- "This, like Mr. Crawford's other publications, contains a large store of information, and many sound and judicious remarks on the institutions and manners of the East."—Westminster Review.
- CROKER'S (CROFTON) COLLECTION OF THE POPULAR SONGS OF IRELAND, Ancient and Modern, with Introductions, and Historical and Explanatory Notes, post 8vo. cloth lettered, (pub. at 10s 6d) reduced to 5s
1839
- This interesting collection is printed in the same form as Ritson's Collection of English and Scottish Songs, and the publications of the Percy Society. The Songs and Ballads are of the most interesting, and, in many instances, exciting character, and each is accompanied by its history from the competent pen of Crofton Croker, than whom no man knows more of the poetic superstitions, and the manners and mythology of Ireland.
- CROLY'S (DR.) PERSONAL HISTORY OF KING GEORGE THE FOURTH, with Anecdotes of distinguished Persons of the last Fifty Years, second edition, enlarged, 2 vols. post 8vo. portrait; extra cloth (pub. at £1. 1s) reduced to 9s
- "This work is written throughout with great animation and elegance, and contains many light and pleasing sketches of the characters of those men whose great qualities of mind and heart made those days illustrious in England's annals. The illustrious names of Pitt and Fox, and Burke; of Thurlow and Sheridan, and Canning; of Graitan, and Flood, and Curran, appear in the historic narrative in their various degrees of celebrity, and are characterised always with force and freedom of style."—Gent.'s Mag.
- CRUIKSHANK'S THREE COURSES AND A DESSERT, a Series of Tales, in three sets, viz. Irish, Legal, and Miscellaneous, crown 8vo. with 51 extremely clever and comic Illustrations; extra cloth, gilt, (pub. at £1. 1s) reduced to 10s
- "That very capital and comic work, 'Three Courses and a Dessert,' was published at a time when the rage for comic stories was not so great as it has since become, and Messrs. Clark and Cruikshank therefore only sold their thousands where Messrs. Dickens and Phiz dispose of their tens of thousands. But if our recommendation can in any way influence the reader, we would enjoin him to secure a copy of the 'Three Courses,' which contains the best designs of George Cruikshank, and some of the most amusing tales in our language."—West. Rev.
- "This is an extraordinary performance. Such an union of the painter, the poet, and the novelist, in one person, is unexampled. A title of the talent that goes to making the stories would set up a dozen of annual writers; and a title of the inventive genius that is displayed in the illustrations, would furnish a gallery of the colour-mixers in Essex Street and the Strand."—Spectator.
- "The most amusing book we have read for many a day."—Athenaum.
- "There must be no smiling here. A man who does not laugh outright is a dullard, and has no heart; and there are some of these designs which have the blessed faculty of creating laughter as often as you see them."—West. Rev.
- CRUIKSHANK'S OMNIBUS, edited by Laman Blanchard, large royal 8vo. illustrated by fine portrait, and 100 humorous engravings on steel and wood, all by the artist himself, very elegantly bound in gilt cloth, with a rich comic back, (pub. at 12s) reduced to 7s

- "The Hon. Mrs. Damer, a descendant of Lady Mary Wortley Montague, successfully rivals her Ladyship in the very features in which she has so long been considered the most delightful of tourists. Such pictures of Turkish private life as are here given it is vain to look for elsewhere."—New Monthly.
- DAVIDSON'S (COL.) DIARY OF TRAVELS AND ADVENTURES IN UPPER INDIA, from Bareilly in Rohilcund, to Hurdwar and Nalun, in the Himalaya Mountains; with a Tour in Bundelcund, a Sporting Excursion in the kingdom of Oude, and a Voyage down the Ganges, 2 vols. post 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 1s) reduced to 9s

- DAVIS'S SKETCHES OF CHINA, during an Inland Journey of 4 months, between Peeking Nankeen, and Canton; with Notices and Observations relative to the War, 2 vols. post 8vo. with a new map of China, cloth lettered, (pub. at 16s) reduced to 9s
1841
- This is Mr. Davis's new work on China, and should be distinguished from the former, which has been reprinted in several shapes. There is no other edition of the present work.

- DE QUINCEY'S LOGIC OF POLITICAL ECONOMY, 8vo. cloth lettered, (pub. at 7s 6d) reduced to 3s 6d
Blackwood, 1844
- A very ably written book, by the author of the Opium Eater.
- DIARY OF THE TIMES OF CHARLES THE SECOND, by the Hon. HENRY SIDNEY, (afterwards Earl of Rodney), including his Correspondence with the Countess of Sunderland, and other distinguished Persons at the English Court: to which are added, Letters illustrative of the Times of James II. and William III. Edited, with Notes, by R. W. Blencowe, Esq. A.M. 2 vols. 8vo. fine portraits and fac-similes of autographs: extra cloth (pub. at £1. 8s) reduced to 12s 1843
- THIS ORIGINAL AND ENTERTAINING DIARY IS OF THE SAME CHARACTER AND PERIOD AS EVELYN'S, TO WHICH IT FORMS A VERY DESIRABLE COMPANION.
- The nature of this "Diary and Correspondence" may be in some degree anticipated, from the fact that the Diarist was not only a brother of the celebrated Algernon Sidney, but that he successively filled the high Court and Political offices of Groom of the Bedchamber, Master of the Robes, Envoy to the States of Holland, Chief Secretary of State, Lord Lieutenant, General and GOVERNOR OF IRELAND, Master-General of the Ordnance, Lieutenant-General of the Forces, and finally, Groom of the Stole, and First Gentleman of the Bedchamber. He was also Member of Parliament for Bramber; and (no trifling advantage in the Times and Court in which he figured) confessedly the handsomest man of his day. That the Diary of such a person, so placed in regard to the Court and Times of Charles II., must abound in features of unsurpassed interest and amusement need scarcely be stated. "A publication of great and permanent interest, that will take its place beside Evelyn and Pepys."—Naval and Military Gazette.

DIARY OF THE TIMES OF GEORGE THE FOURTH, interspersed with Original Letters from the late Queen Caroline, and from various other distinguished Persons, (by Lady Charlotte Bury, Maid of Honour to Queen Caroline, Miss Sheridan, and John Galt). New edition, 4 vols. post 8vo. beautiful portrait of the Queen, extra cloth (pub. at £2. 2s) reduced to 16s 1839
 —the same, THE LIBRARY EDITION, 4 vols. large 8vo. fine portrait, extra cloth lettered (pub. at £2. 16s) reduced to 18s

This amusing miscellany of secret history and suppressed papers caused considerable excitement at the time of its first publication, and ran through several editions in a few weeks. It will always be interesting.

DIBDIN'S BIBLIOMANIA, OR BOOK-MADNESS, a Bibliographical Romance, new edition, with considerable additions, including a Key to the assumed Characters in the Drama, and a Supplement, 2 vols. royal 8vo. handsomely printed, embellished by numerous wood-cuts, many of which are now first added, extra cloth boards, (pub. at £3. 3s) reduced to £1. 11s 6d 1842
 —the same, LARGE PAPER, impl. 8vo. of which only very few copies were printed, extra cloth boards, (pub. at £5. 5s) reduced to £3. 13s 6d

This celebrated work, which unites the entertainment of a romance with the most valuable information on all bibliographical subjects, has long been very scarce, and sold for considerable sums—the small paper for £8. 8s and the Large Paper for upwards of 50 guineas!!! On the present reprint (undertaken by the late Mr. Walmstey) no expense has been spared—the typographical execution is first-rate—many of the wood-cuts have been re-engraved, others have been added, and the whole appears to greater advantage, owing to the improved style of printing. The author has added a Supplement completing it to the present time, and a Key to the Characters in the Dialogues, who comprise the most eminent book collectors of the time. As only a limited number of copies have been printed, fewer in fact than of the former edition, the work must soon again be numbered among rare books.

"The Bibliomania is evidently formed in the first instance on the plan of honest Isaac Walton's "Complete Angler;" with conspicuous marks of the author's being deeply versed in the 'Battle of the Books,' and a familiar acquaintance with old English Literature, and occasionally with the digressions of Yorick. Under the shape of dramatic Dialogue, the reader is equally entertained and instructed; the abstruser parts, with the historic details, being thrown into the form of notes. It would now be useless to pass an encomium on this work, as its merits are so fully established as to have more than doubled the original price of a volume now with difficulty to be obtained."—Gent.'s Mag.

DIBDIN'S BIBLIOPHOBIA, OR REMARKS ON THE PRESENT STATE OF LITERATURE AND THE BOOK TRADE, 8vo. bds. 4s 6d 1832

—the same, LARGE PAPER, 2 vols. royal 4to. hf. bd. morocco, uncut, (pub. at £7. 7s) reduced to £2. 12s 6d

"A masterly production, the publication of which will form an epoch in the Shaksperian History of this country. No work has hitherto appeared, and we may venture to pronounce that none can in future be produced, in which so much agreeable and well digested information respecting Shakspeare and his times will be found. It comprises also a complete and critical analysis of all the Plays and Poems of Shakspeare; and a comprehensive and powerful sketch of the contemporary literature."—Gentleman's Magazine.

EARL'S (G. W.) EASTERN SEAS; OR, VOYAGES AND ADVENTURES IN THE INDIAN ARCHIPELAGO IN 1832, 1833, AND 1834; comprising a Tour of the Island of Java, Visits to Borneo, the Malay Peninsula, Siam, &c.; also an Account of the present State of Singapore, with Observations on the Commercial Resources of the Archipelago, 8vo. with 4 maps, extra cloth bds. (pub. at 12s) reduced to 6s 1837

"The Indian Archipelago possesses in its peculiar moral interest, as Australia in its extent, a claim to be entitled the fifth division of the globe. An excellent and pleasing account of it was given to the public a few years ago by Mr. Crawford. But that did not afford a near view of the insular communities and their singular manners; nor did it point out their political tendency, or commercial capabilities. These wants are now supplied by Mr. Earl, whose volume contains much that is novel, communicated in an unaffected and agreeable manner."—Athenæum.

FENN'S PASTON LETTERS. Original Letters of the Paston Family, written during the Reigns of Henry VI., Edward IV., and Richard III., by various persons of rank and consequence, chiefly on historical subjects, new edition, with notes and corrections, complete in 2 vols. bound in 1, square 12mo. cloth gilt, (pub. at 10s) reduced to 7s 6d 1840

— the same, quaintly bound in maroon morocco, carved boards, in the early style, gilt edges, reduced to 15s

The original edition of this very curious and interesting series of historical letters is a rare book, and sells for upwards of TEN GUINEAS. The present is not an abridgment, as might be supposed from its form, but gives the whole matter by omitting the duplicate version of the letters written in an obsolete language, and adopting only the more modern readable version published by Penn.

"The Paston letters are an important testimony to the progressive condition of society, and come in as a precious link in the chain of the moral history of England, which they alone in this period supply. They stand indeed singly in Europe; for though it is highly probable that in the archives of Italian families, if not in France or Germany, a series of merely private letters equally ancient may be concealed, I do not recollect any that have been published. They were all written in the reigns of Henry VI. and Edward IV., except a few as late as Henry VII., by different members of a wealthy and respectable, but not noble, family; and are, therefore, pictures of the life of the English gentry in that age."—Hallam.

"Friday, February 9th, 1787.

"I am now reading the 'Paston Family Original Letters,' written in the wars of York and Lancaster, and am greatly entertained with them. Their antique air, their unstudied communication of the modes of those old times, with their undoubted authenticity, render them highly interesting, curious, and informing. The Queen told me she had been much struck with the Duke of Suffolk's letter to his son. It is indeed both interesting and instructive."

Madame D'Arbly's Diary.

FIELDING'S WORKS, (Tom Jones, Amelia, Jonathan Wild, Joseph Andrews, Plays, Essays, and Miscellanies,) complete in 1 thick volume, medium 8vo. with 20 capital plates by Cruikshank, extra red cloth, richly gilt, (pub. at £1. 4s) reduced to 14s 1841

"Of all the works of imagination to which English genius has given origin, the writings of Henry Fielding are perhaps most decidedly and exclusively her own."

Sir Walter Scott.

"The prose Homer of human nature."—Lord Byron.

FOSTER'S ESSAYS; (on Decision of Character; on a Man's Writing Memoirs of himself; on the epithet Romantic; on the aversion of Men of Taste to Evangelical Religion, &c.) fcap. 8vo. eighteenth edition, cloth, (pub. at 6s) reduced to 5s 1844

"I have read with the greatest admiration, the Essays of Mr. Foster. He is one of the most profound and eloquent writers that England has produced."

Sir James Macintosh.

"The author places the idea which he wishes to present in such a flood of light, that it is not merely visible itself, but it seems to illumine all around it. He paints metaphysically, and has the happy art of arraying, what in other hands would appear cold and uncomfortable, abstractions, in the warmest colours of fancy."

Robert Hall.

"Mr. Foster's Essays are full of ingenuity and original remarks. The style of them is at once terse and elegant."—Dibdin's Library Comp.

"A very acute and powerful writer of the present day, Mr. Foster, in his Essay on 'Decision of Character,' &c."—Ten Thousand a Year.

FOSTER'S ESSAY ON THE EVILS OF POPULAR IGNORANCE, new edition, elegantly printed, in fcap. 8vo. now first uniform with his Essays on Decision of Character, cloth, 5s 1845

"Mr. Foster always considered this his best work, and the one by which he wished his literary claims to be estimated. Its not having sold to anything like the extent of his other Essays was, he used to say, a proof of the Popular Ignorance."

"A work which, popular and admired as it confessedly is, has never met with the thousandth part of the attention which it deserves."—Dr. Pye Smith.

"If any have yet to learn 'the Evils of Popular Ignorance,' let them survey the chambers of Imagery in this original and affecting Essay, and if they can receive impressions, they will never more forget that the people are destroyed for lack of knowledge."

Harris (Author of Mammon).

"These volumes are so replete with what is valuable, that were we to employ our entire journal, we could, after all, afford but a meagre indication of their interest and worth. . . . Learning, applied to the most patient personal research and actual examination of every foot of the interesting classic ground which the inquiry embraces, is the sure recommendation of this very able and standard work, and admirably contrasts it with the flimsy and ephemeral trash with which the press of our day is smothered. It is, indeed, a lasting memorial of eminent literary exertion, devoted to a subject of great importance, and one dear, not only to every scholar, but to every reader of intelligence to whom the truth of history is an object of consideration.

"The Essay on the History and Languages of Ancient Italy, with which the work is concluded, is the most important contribution to the right understanding of these subjects which has ever appeared."—Lit. Gaz.

"This admirable and laborious work on the Topography of Rome, should undoubtedly find a place in every good library by the side of Gibbon's History. To the classical scholar and student it is absolutely indispensable.

The Map is most beautifully engraved (similar to the Ordnance Maps), on a very large scale, and exhibits the only perfect trigonometrical survey which exists of this classic ground. Many places are here laid down, which are not so much as named in later times; and others have materially changed their localities upon well established proof. The expense of surveys and measurement alone cost upwards of five hundred pounds.

Second edition, 2 vols. 8vo. maps and plans, extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 10s) reduced to 10s 6d 1842

"It is utterly impossible for us to do anything like justice to the merits of these important volumes; but we have seen more than enough to justify us in declaring that they must at once take their rank among our standard histories. We doubt whether a person more adequate to the task could be found than the gentleman whose work is before us."—Athenaeum.

VARIETY, BEAUTY, AND POWER OF HIS COMPOSITION. You may take him and 'cut him out in little snips,' so many lights does he present to the imagination."

Athenæum.

"In his prose and in his verse Vil. inibus puerisque was always the motto of this benevolent and gentle-hearted man. "To the invalids of the Public Services we represent, and whose interests we advocate, and who, through arduous duties in distant climes have impaired their health, we recommend an immediate perusal of this national work, as a safe and valuable guide to direct them in the choice of the Spa or Sea Bathing place best calculated to suit their respective cases."—Naval and Military Gazette.

"Since the Life of Savage we do not remember to have met with any biographical sketch that is so well calculated as the present to paint the evils of voluptuous irregularity. It exhibits, in a variety of instances, the dangerous consequences of mingling virtue with vice, and of substituting bright talents and splendid deeds for the substantial qualities of integrity and castity."—*Lit. HEEREN'S (PROFESSOR) HISTORICAL WORKS, translated from the German, viz:—ASIA, new edition, complete in 2 vols.—AFRICA, 2 vols.—EUROPE AND ITS COLONIES, 2 vols.—ANCIENT GREECE, 1 vol.—HISTORICAL TRIALISSES 1 vol.—MANUAL OF ANCIENT HISTORY, 1 vol.—together 9 vols. 8vo. cloth lettered, uniform, (pub. at £7.) reduced to £4. 10s 1834-46

"Professor Heeren's Historical Researches stand in the very highest rank among those with which modern Germany has enriched the Literature of Europe."—Quarterly Review.

"All students of classical antiquity in this country are indebted to Mr. Talboys for the judgment and the zeal which he has exerted in making the works of this author accessible to English readers. We look upon Heeren as having breathed a new life into the dry bones of Ancient History. In countries, the history of which has been neglected, as being too imperfectly known to afford lessons of political wisdom, he has taught us to look for still more interesting lessons—on the social relations of men, and the intercourse of nations in the earlier ages of the world. His work is as learned as a professed commentary on the ancient historians and geographers, and as entertaining as a modern book of travels."—Edinburgh Review.

"There is no writer of modern times to whom the students of Ancient History are so deeply indebted as Professor Heeren. He is the equal of Niebuhr, of Müller, and of Boeckh, in learning and talent; and he surpasses them all in shrewdness and sagacity. The translation has been executed with equal spirit and fidelity, and has received the approbation of the illustrious author. For ourselves, we feel deeply indebted to Mr. Talboys, who has supplied such rich stores of instruction and entertainment; and, for our countrymen, we can only say, that if this, the best historical work of modern times, does not obtain distinguished success, we shall despair of the cause of historical literature."—Athenæum.

MANUAL OF THE HISTORY OF THE POLITICAL SYSTEM OF EUROPE AND ITS COLONIES, from its formation at the close of the Fifteenth Century, to its re-establishment upon the Fall of Napoleon, translated from the Fifth German Edition, 2 vols. 8vo. extra cloth (pub. at £1. 4s) reduced to 18s Oxford, Talboys, 1834

"In scrupulous fidelity, in sound judgment, and in clear reasoning, Professor Heeren is second to none. His design in the present work is to give a connected view of the political and colonial system of Europe, from the time that the relations of the European States were formed into a system, towards the close of the fifteenth century, to the re-establishment of the States system, consequent upon the fall of Napoleon. His work is a perfect whole. It is the best history of Modern Europe that has yet appeared, and it is likely long to remain without a rival."—Athenæum.

"A work of sterling value for now and hereafter—a work of infinite labour and commensurate intelligence—a work which would be cheap at double its price, instead of being dear at any price; and a work which will diffuse useful knowledge for generations, after all the shallow pretenders to that distinction are fortunately forgotten."—Literary Gazette.

"We never remember to have seen a work in which so much useful knowledge was condensed into so small a compass. A careful examination convinces us that this book will be useful for our English higher schools or colleges, and will contribute to direct attention to the better and more instructive parts of history. The translation is executed with great fidelity."—Quarterly Journal of Education.

"Sir Francis Head's Narrative is a very remarkable work, being one of the most clear, unreserved, and honest accounts ever rendered by a public servant, of the acts, the principles, and the policy of an important administration. Few provincial governors could have had to relate so interesting, so arduous, and so successful a struggle."—Quarterly Review.

HERBERT'S (HON. AND REV. WILLIAM) ATTLA, KING OF THE HUNS, a Poem, handsomely printed in one stout volume, 8vo. gilt cloth, (pub. at 14s) reduced to 7s

—MISCELLANEOUS WORKS, viz. Horæ Scandicæ, or Works (Poetical) relating to Old Scandinavian Literature; Horæ Pieriæ, or Poetry on various subjects; Sylvarum Liber, Reviews, Sermons, &c.; 2 vols. 8vo. cloth bds. (pub. at £1. 1s) reduced to 10s 6d 1842

"Dean Herbert is well known in the literary circles as a graceful poet and an accomplished critic, and the very costly edition of his miscellaneous productions will be welcomed in every well furnished library. The Scandinavian portion is peculiarly interesting; and the translations from the Icelandic, while they afford agreeable evidences of Dean Herbert's acquirements, may be consulted with great advantage by the students of northern literature. The tragedy of The Wanderer of Jutland, founded upon an old ballad, is an excellent illustration of the Norwegian character, as developed in the national history and institutions. The criticisms are clear and profound, and the sermons exhibit a rare union of learning and unaffected piety."—Atlas.

"An account which, interesting from its own excellence in every merit that should adorn such a work, becomes still more so from the feeling that Lord Byron is, as it were, present through its pages, and that we there follow his first youthful footsteps into the land with whose name he has intertwined his own for ever."—Moore's Life of Byron.

"An excellent work. Its most striking and most valuable characteristic is its strict honesty. Every page bears the stamp and impress of veracity. His delineations are admirable, and evince great graphic power. Valuable as the work is to Englishmen because it contains a faithful description of a country with whose prosperity that of England is identified, it will, if read aright, be infinitely more valuable to Irishmen, for it shows them in true colours to themselves. This work, originally published in 1576, was the first history of any county; it was not only highly approved by the literary men of the age, but has been considered a model of topographical writing. LISTER'S LIFE AND ADMINISTRATION OF EDWARD FIRST EARL OF CLARENDON, with original Correspondence and Authentic Papers, never before published, 3 vols. 8vo. portrait, extra cloth bds. (pub. at £2. 8s) reduced to £1. 1s 1838

"The difficulty of writing the memoirs of Clarendon is very great; and has hitherto deterred biographers. The task, however, Mr. Lister has performed with remarkable success. His Life of Clarendon is not the ingenious or eloquent pleading of an advocate, but the severe and enlightened neutrality of a judge. The characteristics proper for the occasion, were good taste and good sense, intelligent research, and perfect candour. And these Mr. Lister possesses in an eminent degree. The author of 'Granby' has faithfully distinguished between the province of fiction and of truth. In his life of Clarendon he simply endeavours to place before us an honest portrait, with all its excellencies and defects—all the lights and shadows belonging to it, and not to body forth the hero of an historical romance. It is impossible to give any just idea of Mr. Lister's book by means of extracts. Its merit is not condensed into a few striking passages, but it is skillfully and equally diffused over the whole. We therefore refer our readers to the work itself."—Edinb. Review.

"A work of laborious research, written with masterly ability."—Atlas.

LOCKE'S PHILOSOPHICAL WORKS, containing the Conduct of the Understanding; Essay on the Human Understanding; an Examination of Malebranche's Opinion of seeing all Things in God, with Remarks upon some of Mr. Norris's Books; Elements of Natural Philosophy: some Thoughts concerning Reading and Study for a Gentleman, &c. with a Preliminary Discourse and Notes by J. LOCKHART'S HISTORY OF THE CONQUEST OF MEXICO AND NEW SPAIN, and Memoirs of the Conquistador, BERNAL DIAZ DEL CASTILLO, written by himself, and now first completely translated from the original Spanish, 2 vols. 8vo. extra cloth (pub. at £1. 4s) reduced to 12s 1844

"Bernal Diaz's account bears all the marks of authenticity, and is accompanied with such pleasant naïveté, with such interesting details, and such amusing vanity, and yet so pardonable in an old soldier, who had been, as he boasts, in an hundred and nineteen battles, AS RENDERS HIS BOOK ONE OF THE MOST SINGULAR THAT IS TO BE FOUND IN ANY LANGUAGE."—Dr. Robertson, in his 'History of America.'

"The quaint, simple chronicle of this old soldier is the most trustworthy of the narrators of this conquest. The strange, wild incidents of that extraordinary tale come out, in all their freshness, in the curious details of Bernal Diaz; and the scenes of social magnificence amid which they were laid, tell wonderfully in the rude sketching, and unpremeditated cumulation of his pen. And the wondrous remains of an extinct civilization brought to light, in various parts of the great American Continent, have conferred an additional value on such descriptions of the ancient Aztec splendour, as record the first impressions of credible witnesses, when first it rose upon the astonished senses like a bewildering dream."—Athenæum.

His volumes are indeed very agreeable and very refreshing."—Literary Gazette.

It is a valuable addition to the stock of information already possessed by the public, and cannot be too generally read, or too carefully studied."—Blackwood's Edinb. Mag.

MARCHMONT PAPERS, illustrative of Events from 1685 to 1750, selected by the Right Hon. Sir George Rose, from the Family MSS. in his possession, 3 vols. 8vo. gilt cloth, (pub. at £1. 16s) reduced to 15s 1831

"A mine of instruction and amusement. This important and interesting work will stand for ever on the same shelf with Evelyn, Pepys, and the Letters of Horace Walpole."—Literary Gazette.

MARLBOROUGH (DUCHESS OF) MEMOIRS OF, AND OF THE COURT OF QUEEN ANNE, compiled from Original and Unpublished Documents, by Mrs. A. T. THOMPSON, 2 vols. 8vo. fac-simile letters, extra cloth bds. (pub. at £1. 8s) reduced to 10s 6d 1839

"A sterling historical work."—Literary Ga
"The Life of one of the most singular individuals in the annals of female influence in this country, written throughout with considerable power, great impartiality, and very refined taste."—Atlas.

"The life of the masculine Duchess is more full of general interest than even that of her celebrated husband; for her vigorous intellect, her determined spirit, and the position in which she was placed with respect to both Courts and Cabinets, made her the principal personage of Europe, the Duke himself scarcely excepted. Notwithstanding this, the biography of this most extraordinary woman has been a desideratum, and it is only now that it is supplied by the work before us. We have now, however, the biographies both of the hero of the field, and the heroine of the cabinet, and in point of entertainment the latter is the more preferable of the two. Mrs. Thompson's work combines every variety of interest, for it includes the scenes of domestic life, the affairs of state, the anxieties and dangers of war, as well as the pomp and ceremonies of courts, and the private hours of royalty, both in friendship and in strife, in love and in deadly hate."

MARLBOROUGH'S (DUCHESS OF) PRIVATE CORRESPONDENCE, illustrative of the Court and Times of Queen Anne; now first published from the Originals, with her Sketches and Opinions of her Contemporaries, and the Select Correspondence of her Husband, John, Duke of Marlborough, second edition, 2 vols. 8vo. portraits, extra cloth boards, (pub. at £1. 8s) reduced to 11s 1838

"This is a very delightful work. We have closed the volumes with a confirmed impression that in many of the highest points of conduct, courage, and understanding, the Duchess of Marlborough was the most remarkable woman of her own or any other day."—Examiner.

"These original letters have great interest, for they lay bare to us the heart and mind of that extraordinary woman, who, at a crisis among the most celebrated in our annals, was virtually the prime minister of England. It is well known that Godolphin and Marlborough were brought over to Whig principles and retained in them by the influence of the Duchess—that to her power over the mind of the Queen was owing the continuance of the administration which raised England to the pinnacle of glory—and that the decline of that influence enabled Harley and St. John to stain our annals with the treaty of Utrecht. This Correspondence contains a pretty full commentary on the principal events in the reign of Anne, but to us the most interesting part is 'The Characters of her Contemporaries' written by the Duchess, and her 'Opinions,' which are said to be extracts from her letters to Lord Stair, and reprinted from a very rare little volume privately circulated in 1788 by Lord Hailes."—Athenæum.

MARRYAT'S (CAPT.) DIARIES IN AMERICA, WITH REMARKS ON ITS INSTITUTIONS, both series, 6 vols. post 8vo. extra cloth bds. (pub. at £3. 3s) reduced to 15s 1839

"The most readable and one of the most valuable works which has yet appeared on America. As pointed in composition, as tinged with humour, and as amusing as any of his novels. In the grave and more general views it exhibits much sound sense and shrewdness."—Spectator.

"Captain Marryat stands second in merit to no living novelist. His happy delineations and contrasts of character, and easy play of native fun would redeem a thousand faults. His strong sense and utter superiority to affectation of all sorts command respect; and in his quiet effectiveness of circumstantial narrative, he approaches old Defoe. There is less of caricature about his pictures than in those of any contemporary humorist—and he shows far larger and maturer knowledge of the real workings of human nature. These Diaries in America will, no doubt, attract some attention, which they will amply repay."—Quarterly Review.

OLLA PODRIDA, consisting of his Diary on the Continent, 1835-1837, and various Short Novels, Tales, Sketches, &c. 3 vols. post 8vo. extra cloth bds. (pub. at £1. 11s 6d) reduced to 7s 6d 1840

"Capt. Marryat's Diary is a popular and piquant picture of Continental life, and the various clever sketches and light pieces are well fitted to dispel the dull hours of the general reader."—Literary Gazette.

"Soldiers and sailors are proverbially skilled in impromptu cookery; and it will not therefore surprise any one who taste Capt. Marryat's 'Olla,' to find it savory, and containing some choice morsels."—Athenæum.

"A work rich in entertaining anecdotes."

Quarterly Review.

"This is a rare book—a book of jest and anecdote. There is a quick transition from character to character, and from incident to incident; and the eccentricities of old Johnny Winter, the wardrobe keeper and tailor at York—the dragging, drawing oddities of Tate Wilkinson—the natty neatnesses of George Colman—the practical jesting of Theodore Hook—the highly seasoned egotism and gullibility of Charles Inledon—these, and the passing glances at Curran, John Kemble, the Prince Regent, Dr. Kitchiner, Queen Charlotte, and Mr. John Taylor, are given in capital style."

Athenæum.

MAXWELL'S LIFE OF THE DUKE OF WELLINGTON, 3 handsome vols. 8vo. embellished with numerous highly finished line engravings by Cooper and other eminent artists, consisting of battle pieces, portraits, military plans, and maps; besides a great number of fine wood engravings; elegant in gilt cloth, (pub. at £3. 7s) reduced to £1. 16s 1839-41

— the same, Large Paper, proof impressions of the plates on India paper, very few printed; gilt cloth, (pub. at £5.) reduced to £3. 3s

"Mr. Maxwell's 'Life of the Duke of Wellington,' in our opinion, has no rival among similar publications of the day. . . . We pronounce it free from flattery and bombast, succinct and masterly. . . . The type and mechanical execution are admirable; the plans of battles and sieges numerous, ample, and useful; the portraits of the Duke and his warrior contemporaries many and faithful; the battle pictures animated and brilliant; and the vignettes of costumes and manners worthy of the military genius of Horace Vernet himself."—Times.

"The Life of the Duke of Wellington, by Mr. Maxwell, is in all respects the best that has yet appeared. The world had in some measure a guarantee for more than average excellence in the name of a writer well versed in military affairs, and whose previous productions are in no small degree associated with the glories of our country. We find the utmost care, labour, and research employed to aid his perfect knowledge of his subject; and the manly vigour, force, and simplicity of a style which is in no small degree assimilated to the character of the great soldier himself. And here one cannot help remarking how singularly eventful seems the career of the Duke from its very dawn, and how even his earliest life is studded with traits and evidences which are so many keys to that triumphant gate of glory which it was to be his after brilliant destiny to open wide before the world. Mr. Maxwell has industriously gathered these anecdotal treasures, blending them carefully with his great story, and pervading his theme with a tone of spirited and well-judged criticism which much increases the reader's respect for the biographer. The work has all the dignity of history, and contains much original matter of interest, always stated upon sound authority. In regard to the general publication of the work, it could not be better than it is. Its typography is both careful and beautiful, and its illustrations are varied and excellent."—Morning Post.

"This splendidly illustrated Life of the great Captain of the Age, reflects no inconsiderable credit on the taste and enterprise of its publisher, and on the care, industry, and intelligence of its author. In beauty of illustration, splendour of typography, and copiousness of detail, it must take precedence of all the other biographies of the Duke of Wellington. We have gone carefully through his work, and having compared its details with the most accredited authorities, we have no hesitation in awarding to the author the important merits of care, fidelity, and judgment in the selection and arrangement of his facts. . . . Altogether, handsomer or more interesting volumes have rarely issued from the press, even in these days of enterprise and intelligence."—United Service Gazette.

"Napoleon was, Wellington is, (according to Lord Brougham) the 'greatest man that ever lived.' Whether this be true or not, we declare our opinion that Mr. Maxwell's is the most faithful—the most interesting, and best written life of the great warrior which has yet been published. The work is illustrated with most exquisite Engravings on steel, including plans of the different engagements, and is in every way a capital publication."

MILLINGEN'S HISTORY OF DUELLING; including Narratives of the most Remarkable Personal Encounters that have taken place from the earliest period to the present time, 2 vols. 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 8s) reduced to 12s 1841

— SELECT PROSE WORKS, edited with a Preliminary Discourse, Introductory Remarks, and Notes, by J. A. St. John, 2 vols. fcap. 8vo. fine portraits of Milton and Cromwell, extra cloth, (pub. at 14s) reduced to 7s 1836

"The prose writings of Milton deserve the attention of every man who wishes to become acquainted with the full power of the English language. They abound with passages compared with which the finest declamations of Burke sink into insignificance. They are a perfect field of cloth of gold."—T. B. Macaulay.

MITFORD'S HISTORY OF GREECE, by LORD REDESDALE, the Chronology corrected and compared with Clinton's Fasti Hellenici, by King, (Cadell's last and much the best edition, 1838) 8 vols. 8vo. gilt cloth, (pub. at £4. 4s) reduced to £2. 12s 6d 1838

— the same, tree-marbled calf extra, by Clarke, reduced to £4. 14s 6d

In respect to this new and improved edition, one of the most eminent scholars of the present day has expressed his opinion that "the increased advantages given to it have doubled the original value of the work."

It should be observed that the numerous additions and the amended Chronology, from that valuable performance, the Fasti Hellenici, are subjoined in the shape of Notes, so as not to interfere with the integrity of the text.

As there are many editions of Mitford's Greece before the public, it may be necessary to observe that the present octavo edition is the only one which contains Mr. King's last corrections and additions (which, as stated in his advertisement, are material); it is at the same time the only edition which should at the present day be chosen for the gentleman's library, being the handsomest, the most correct, and the most complete.

LORD BYRON says of Mitford, "HIS IS THE BEST MODERN HISTORY OF GREECE IN ANY LANGUAGE, AND HE IS PERHAPS THE BEST OF ALL MODERN HISTORIANS WHATSOEVER. His virtues are learning, labour, research, and earnestness."

"Considered with respect, not only to the whole series of ancient events which it comprises, but also to any very prominent portion of that series, MR. MITFORD'S HISTORY IS THE BEST THAT HAS APPEARED SINCE THE DAYS OF XENOPHON"—Edinb. Review.

"I have heard Dr. Johnson say, that he never read but one book through from choice in his whole life, and that book was Lady Mary Wortley Montagu's Letters."—Boonell's Life of Johnson.

"These letters are so bewitchingly entertaining, that we defy the most phlegmatic man on earth to read one without going through with them, or, after finishing the whole, not to wish there were twenty more volumes."—Smollett.

MOORE'S (THOMAS) EPICUREAN, A TALE; and ALCIPIRON, A POEM. TURNER'S ILLUSTRATED EDITION, foolscap 8vo. four beautiful engravings, elegantly bound in cloth, with tastefully gilt back and sides, (pub. at 10s 6d) reduced to 3s 1839

Of this extremely pretty and favourite volume the Advertiser has bought an unusually large impression, and therefore offers them for the present at the above extraordinary low price.

There is nothing so cheap and beautiful in the whole circle of modern literature.

"For insight into human nature, for poetical thought, for grace, refinement, intellect, pathos, and sublimity, we prize the Epicurean even above any other of the author's works. Indeed, although written in prose, this is a masterly poem, and will for ever rank as one of the most exquisite productions in English literature."—Literary Gazette.

MOORE'S (DR. JOHNS) WORKS; containing Zeluco; Mordaunt; Edward; View of Society and Manners in Italy, France, Switzerland, and Germany; View of the Causes and Progress of the French Revolution; Journal during a Residence in France. "John Moore, M.D. the celebrated author of Travels into France and Italy; of Zeluco; of Edward, or Various Views of Life and Manners in England, &c. He is a sensible and entertaining companion; his style is easy, always agreeable and pleasing; his wit is playful, and his pleasantry little inferior to Molière's."—Pursuits of Literature.

MORE'S UTOPIA, or THE HAPPY REPUBLIC, a Philosophical Romance; to which is added, THE NEW ATLANTIS, BY LORD BACON; with a Preliminary Discourse, containing an Analysis of Plato's Republic, &c. and copious Notes, by J. A. ST. JOHN, Esq. NEW EDITION, fcap. 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at 6s) reduced to 4s 6d 1845

"The pleasing manner in which this work is written, the felicity of the style, the elegance of the satire, the acuteness of the remarks on men and manners, the freedom and manliness of the opinions, would have raised it to distinction in any age."—Macdiarmid.

Of these two indispensable works in an English Historical Library, only 250 copies were printed, and but very few now remain for sale. As there is no probability of their ever being reprinted, there is little doubt, but that in a few years both works will become rare and valuable.

The former edition of the Progresses of Queen Elizabeth, less complete than the present, had become so extremely scarce, that copies were repeatedly sold by public auction for upwards of £40.

The progresses of King James have only been once printed. The two works include the republication of rare historical and poetical tracts, the originals of which, if they could be bought, would be worth more than a thousand pounds.

No library, into which the English Chronicles, State Papers, the Harleian Miscellany, and Lord Somers' Collection of Tracts are admitted, should be without these important volumes, which form a connected History of the Courts of Elizabeth and James, and afford a living picture of the manners of England, its pursuits and its amusements for three-quarters of a century, (1553 to 1625.) They also develop numerous interesting and unknown anecdotes of most of our Noble Families, and in many cases the circumstances of their rise and first elevation to the Peerage.

NICOLAS'S LIFE OF WILLIAM DAVISON, Secretary of State and Privy Counsellor to Queen Elizabeth, 8vo. with Fac-Similes of writing, in extra cloth boards, (pub. at 12s) reduced to 4s 6d

NIEBUHR'S HISTORY OF ROME, epitomized, with Chronological Tables and an Appendix, by Travers Twiss, B.C.L. 2 vols. 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 1s) reduced to 12s

Oxford, Talboys, 1837

"Niebuhr has thrown new light upon our knowledge of Roman affairs, to a degree of which those who are unacquainted with his labours can scarcely form an adequate idea."—Quarterly Review.

"This edition by Mr. Twiss is a very valuable addition to classical learning, clearly and ably embodying all the latest efforts of the laborious Niebuhr. The chronological tables are excellent; and, indeed, the whole is a work most fitting for the library of every intelligent reader."—Literary Gazette.

"This is a truly valuable work, which for the first time presents the researches of Niebuhr to English students in an accessible form. Mr. Twiss has judiciously expunged those passages in which Niebuhr exhibited so strange a mixture of scepticism and credulity. In the appendix there are some original investigations which display great learning and acuteness; we were particularly pleased with that on the office of the Dictator, which appears to us the most satisfactory account that has yet been given of that anomaly in the Roman constitution."—Athenæum.

NIMROD ABROAD, (being Observations made during Six Years Residence in France, Belgium, Germany, Italy, Russia, United States, India, &c., by C. J. Apperley (Nimrod), 2 vols. post 8vo. extra cloth, with sporting devices on back and sides, (pub. at £1. 1s) reduced to 9s

"Our sporting readers will welcome with delight this new production of the popular author of 'The Chase, the Turf, and the Road.' In these volumes the famous Nimrod, from whose sporting dicta there is no appeal, carries the reader with him to enjoy every species of sport which the wide world affords. We have seldom seen Mr. Apperley more at home or to better purpose than in these volumes, while partaking of the princely hospitality of the late Duke of Orleans or the Prince of Moskowa, or of a score of the sporting noblemen in all parts of the civilized world."—New Monthly.

1823

"These Travels are so replete with new and invaluable matter, that we confess ourselves unequal to do them justice by a synopsis; and they assuredly must rank high among the most important books of reference of which we are possessed. They and Borchardt's deserve a place on the same shelf:—a place to which no other Eastern travels have hitherto attained."—Classical Journal.

CITY OF THE MAGYAR, or Hungary and her Institutions in 1839-40, 3 vols. 8vo. with 9 engravings, extra gilt cloth, (pub. at £1. 11s 6d) reduced to 10s 6d

"An able and very interesting work."—Athenæum.

"There is much research, and much interesting information, in the present volumes; Miss Pardoe has been an industrious and inquisitive traveller, and has successfully studied the institutions of the country, and the customs and character of the people with whom she dwelt. The book partakes of the nature both of a history and of a book of travel: one portion of it phrases us by its graphic details, and its amusing anecdotes, another interests us by its researches into the political and statistical state of Hungary. Much will be new, not only to those who have never resided in that singularly interesting part of Europe, but even to many persons who have visited it. It is, indeed, a book of sterling merit."—Gent's Mag.

"But above all, I then first became acquainted with Bp. Percy's 'Reliques of Ancient Poetry.' The first time, too, I could scrape a few shillings together, I bought unto myself a copy of these beloved volumes; nor do I believe I ever read a book half so frequently, or with half the enthusiasm."—Sir Walter Scott.

"Percy's Reliques are the most agreeable selection, perhaps, which exists in any language."—Eliza.

CONTENTS.

- Vol. I.—Population. Production.
 Vol. II.—Interchange. Revenue and Expenditure.
 Vol. III.—Consumption. Accumulation. Moral Progress. Colonies and Foreign Dependencies.
 A book of the very highest character.

PRICE'S (MAJOR DAVID) MAHOMMEDAN HISTORY, from the Death of the Arabian Legislator to the Accession of the Emperor Akbar, and the Establishment of the Mogul Empire in Hindostan, compiled from original Persian Authorities, 4 vols. 4to. with a large coloured map of Asia, gilt cloth, (pub. at £7. 17s 6d) reduced to £1. 16s 1821

The author, Major Price, spent nearly twenty-four years in the East, made himself thoroughly acquainted with the original authorities of Mahomedan History, and then compiled the above elaborate work, which may be said to be the only one faithfully representing Oriental records and traditions.

PRIOR'S LIFE OF BURKE, with unpublished Specimens of his Poetry and Letters, third and much improved edition, 8vo. portrait and autographs, gilt cloth, (pub. at 14s) reduced to 9s 1839

"Prior's Life of Burke is full of interesting particulars respecting Burke, not given by his other biographers; it exhibits just sentiment and good feeling, and displays strong evidence that much careful inquiry has been employed in its production. The work is a sensible and a valuable one; and the diction of it is perspicuous and spirited."—Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine.

"Excellent feeling, in perspicuous and forcible language."—Quarterly Review.

LIFE OF OLIVER GOLDSMITH, from a variety of Original Sources, 2 vols. 8vo. handsomely printed, gilt cloth, (pub. at £1. 10s) reduced to 12s 1837

"The solid worth of this biography consists in the many striking anecdotes which Mr. Prior has gathered in the course of his anxious researches among Goldsmith's surviving acquaintances, and the immediate descendants of his personal friends in London, and relations in Ireland; above all, in the rich mass of the poet's own familiar letters, which he has been enabled to bring together for the first time. No poet's letters in the world, not even those of Cowper, appear to us more interesting."—Quarterly Review.

QUIN'S STEAM VOYAGES ON THE MOSELLE, THE ELBE, AND LAKES OF ITALY, with Notices of Thuringen and Saxon Switzerland, &c. with Visits to the principal Cities of Belgium, &c. 2 vols. post 8vo. 2 plates, extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 1s) reduced to 9s 1843

It was Mr. Quin's good fortune to open to his fellow countrymen, and indeed, to foreign tourists in general, the grand and peculiar attractions of the Danube. His "Steam Voyage" down that river has already been diffused (most deservedly) all over the continent, not only in the English, but also in the French and German languages.

RABELAIS' WORKS, translated from the French by Sir Thomas Urquhart, Motteux and Ozell; with explanatory Notes by Duchat, and others, 4 vols. fcap. 8vo. richly full gilt, with singular devices; extra cloth, (pub. at £1.) reduced to 16s 1844

Rabelais, although a classic in every European language, and admitted into every library, is too indigent for the present age, and should not be put in the way of females.

"Rabelais is one of the world's master-minds, he belongs to those who have perpetual dominion, and rule us from their urns. His invention is inexhaustible, his opulence of diction wonderful, and his learning ever ready to illustrate and enforce whatever his genius may devise; while for wit and humour he has but one equal in literature."—Athenæum.

"The English version of Rabelais by Urquhart, Motteux, and Ozell, may be considered as one of the most perfect specimens of the art of translation." Tytler.

"But the most celebrated and certainly the most brilliant performance in the path of fiction that belongs to this age, is that of Rabelais. Few books are less likely to obtain the praise of a rigorous critic; but few have more the stamp of originality, or show a more redundant fertility, always of language, and sometimes of imagination. His reading is large, but always rendered subservient to ridicule; he is never serious in a single page, and seems to have had little other aim, in his first two volumes, than to pour out the exuberance of his annual gaiety."—Hallam's Literature of Europe.

"Beyond a doubt Rabelais was among the deepest, as well as boldest thinkers of his age. His buffoonery was not merely Brutus's rough stick, which contained a rod of gold; it was necessary as an amulet against the monks and legates. Never was there a more plau-ible, and seldom, I am persuaded, a less appropriate line, than the thousand times quoted

 "Rabelais laughing in his easy chair," of Mr. Pope. The caricature of his fifth and zanyism show how fully he both knew and felt the danger in which he stood. I could write a treatise in praise of the moral elevation of Rabelais' works, which would make the church stare and the conventicle groan, and yet would be truth, and nothing but the truth. I class Rabelais with the great creative minds of the world, Shakspeare, Dante, Cervantes, &c."—Coleridge.

— LIFE OF LORENZO DE MEDICI, CALLED "THE MAGNIFICENT," new and much improved edition, edited by his Son, Thomas Roscoe, complete in one stout vol. 8vo. closely but very handsomely printed, illustrated by numerous engravings, introduced as head and tail pieces, extra cloth, 12s 1845

"The delightful biographical labours of Mr. Roscoe, which at the period of their publication, and to the latest period, procured, and will procure, for the author, a deservedly high reputation. The style is pure and elegant; the facts are interesting and instructive; and the moral, or application, is of an incomparable tendency. These facts are new to the greater part of English readers: fresh fountain heads of pleasing intelligence are explored; and a stream of knowledge flows forth, at once bright, pure, and nourishing. I hardly know works which evince throughout a more delicate taste, exercised upon a more felicitous subject. Roscoe is the regenerator, among Englishmen, of a love of Italian literature."—Dibdin.

"I cannot but congratulate the public upon this great and important addition to Classical History, which I regard as a Phenomenon in Literature in every point of view."

"The rise and progress of every polite art in Italy, at the revival of learning, are investigated and described with acuteness, depth, and precision, with the spirit of the poet, and the solidity of the historian. I have not terms sufficient to express my admiration of Mr. Roscoe's genius and erudition, or my gratitude for the amusement and information I have received. I recommend his labours to our country as works of unquestionable genius and uncommon merit. They add the name of Roscoe to the very first rank of English Classical Historians."

Matthias, Pursuits of Literature.

"Roscoe is, I think, by far the best of our Historians, both for beauty of style and for deep reflections; and his translations of poetry are equal to the originals."

"Captain Scott is as pleasant a guide and companion over the vinous hills and through the romantic forests of Spain as can be imagined; for his eye catches at a glance what is most worthy of observation, and his wit and his enjoying heart put us into the right way to distil as much satisfaction from it as possible. He has introduced into his travels some stories and legends, which vary the nature of the work, and increases its interest. Upon the whole, Captain Scott's Excursions form one of the most entertaining books we have read for many years, while there is much in it that gives valuable information upon the present state of Spain, and the conditions of its political affairs."

Court Journal.

"Captain Scott is a lively and entertaining sketcher, and there is a great variety of pleasant and instructive matter also in his narrative. Roman, Moorish, and other antiquities attract a fair share of his notice."

"One of the most sterling publications of the season. There is a freshness in Captain Scott's narrative that affords a new desire respecting the events of this most interesting country. The habits and customs of the people are sketched with considerable spirit and talent, and there is much novelty in the gallant author's details."—Naval and Military Gazette.

"We do not recollect to have read a better book of travels than this since Stadel's able publication on Turkey. The field of African and Egyptian investigation has been variously trodden, but Captain Scott, trusting to shrewd observation and a sound understanding, has struck out new lights and improved upon the information of others."—United Service Journal.

"Capt. Scott's personal narrative is agreeable and amusing; indeed, some of his sketches are clever, piquant, and characteristic; and we must further do him the justice to say, that his details respecting the miltary power and resources of the countries subject to the sway of Mahommed Ali, as well as his observations on the government, policy, and commercial system of the present ruler of Egypt, evince great extent of information."—Edinburgh Review.

"The cheapest and best edition of the bard of Avon extant. Its united claims to patronage cannot be resisted; and we are certain that the work will find its way into the boudoir of every lady, and the library of every gentleman; at least, if it does not, it ought."—Monthly Mag.

"One of the most valuable of the modern illustrated works is Mr. Valpy's beautiful edition of the Plays and Poems of Shakspeare, embellished with elegant outlines from the best and most celebrated pictures, which were originally engraved for Boydell's expensive work. With great sincerity we recommend this as one of the handsomest, and cheapest editions of the bard, that we have ever seen."—John Bull.

SHARP'S COVENTRY MYSTERIES. The Pageants or Dramatic Mysteries anciently performed at Coventry, by the Trading Companies of that City; with a Dissertation illustrative of the Vehicle, Characters, and Dresses of the Actors, compiled, in a great degree, from sources hitherto unexplored; to which are added the Pageant of the Shearmen, the Taylor's Company, and other Municipal Entertainments of a Public Nature: an Essay on Minstrels and Waits, and a Glossary; the whole embellished by copper-plates and wood-cuts, (only 250 copies printed,) royal 4to. — the same, LARGE PAPER, impl. 4to, a splendid book, of which very few were printed, proof impressions of the plates on India paper, (pub. at £6. 6s) reduced to £1. 16s

* * * To shew the interest and importance attached to these Ancient Mysteries, it may be observed, that a MS. volume of them, at the recent sale at Strawberry Hill, fetched no less than £230. 10s.!

"The volume abounds with ingenious illustrations of many of those national and local customs, which are among the happiest associations of our younger years, the minstrels, waits, and puppets, which our infant feelings welcomed in their turn. The work is a most laborious and valuable addition towards a complete history of the early drama and the stage, and Mr. Sharp was eminently qualified to undertake and execute the arduous task, for which he is entitled to the gratitude of the literary world."—Retrospect. Review.

"A singularly interesting book, which contains more information and entertainment than we have received for some years from any antiquarian publication that has fallen under our notice."—Gent.'s Mag.

SHERIDAN'S (THE RIGHT HON. R. BRINSLEY) SPEECHES, with a Sketch of his Life, edited by a Constitutional Friend, new and handsome library edition, with portrait, complete in 3 vols. 8vo. in extra cloth boards, (pub. at £2. 5s) reduced to 18s 1842

"Whatever Sheridan has done, has been, par excellence, always the best of its kind. He has written the best comedy (School for Scandal), the best drama, (the Duenna), the best farce, (the Critic), and the best address (Monologue on Garrick); and, to crown all, delivered the very best oration (the famous Begum Speech) ever conceived or heard in this country."—Byron.

No speeches have ever contained a greater degree of the true fire of eloquence, or produced more effect upon the auditors than those of Sheridan. Mr. Burke declared his Speech on the Begum Princesses of Oude, to be "the most astonishing effort of eloquence, argument, and wit united, of which there was any record or tradition." Mr. Fox said, "All that he had ever heard, all that he had ever read, when compared with it, dwindled into nothing, and vanished like vapour before the sun."—and Mr. Pitt acknowledged "that it surpassed all the eloquence of ancient and modern times, and possessed every thing that genius or art could furnish, to agitate and controul the human mind."

"This new and compact edition contains the whole of the previous four volumes, with such improvements as the advanced state of knowledge supplies. Drs. Aillie, Beddoes, Currie, Sprengel, and other eminent

Physicians have warmly eulogised the work; but the best testimony of its usefulness is the author's own longevity, as he was enabled to carry on his literary pursuits at the advanced age of eighty.

It gives the best history yet published of this celebrated University; it embraces all the topics of interest connected with it; and will be read with deep interest as the first work giving to British people an adequate description of that national establishment for developing the intellectual power of the Irish people." Sun, July 7, 1845.

TOUR IN NORMANDY, Illustrative of the Manners, Customs, and Traditions, History, Antiquities, and Present State of the People. Edited from the Journal of a recent Traveller, by F. SHOBERL, Esq. 2 vols. post 8vo. illustrated with 12 plates by Mrs. Dawson Turner and Cotman, extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 1s) reduced to 10s 6d 1841

"A better guide to this interesting French province can hardly be required. It is a book of travels possessed of high pretensions as well as permanent interest. The author enters into an elaborate examination of every thing of importance relating to Normandy, making the sterling information conveyed by his pages the more entertaining, by dilating on what is most picturesque in its antiquities, its legends, and its scenery; in short, comprehending within his scope all that the reader can require to know of the country and its inhabitants."—New Monthly Mag.

SUMMER IN WESTERN FRANCE, including the Provinces from the LOIRE to the Dordogne, 2 vols. 8vo. with nine illustrations by Hervieu, extra cloth bds. (pub. at £1. 12s) reduced to 9s 1841

"The present Tour embraces the land of the English dominion in France, and the scenes of the heroic adventures of Joan de Arc—the field of the no less noble struggle of La Vendée—and of the sanguinary wars of the Huguenots at La Rochelle, and the country of Cognac and Claret,—rendered memorable also as the spot where flourished that terror of the curious, Blue Beard, the equally sanguinary Geoffrey Grand Dent, Diana of Poitiers, 'Les Penitens d'Amour,' and a whole host of historical characters of equal interest,—the attractiveness of the author's materials must be as manifest as that of Mrs. Trollope's name as editor."

"These volumes are calculated to be both a useful guide and agreeable companion to any tourist through Western France. We like this class of books."

Athenæum.

TUCKER'S LIGHT OF NATURE PURSUED, with some account of the Life of the Author, by Sir H. P. St. John Mildmay, Bart. M.P., complete in 2 vols. 8vo. extra cloth boards (pub. at £1. 10s) reduced to 15s 1842

Dr. Paley, in speaking of this valuable work, says—"It would be ungrateful not to confess the obligation I am under to the writings of Tucker under the Title of 'The Light of Nature Pursued.'" There is more original thinking on the several subjects that he has taken in hand than in any other, not to say than in all others put together: his talent for illustrations is unrivalled.

"The 'Light of Nature' is a work, which after much consideration, I think myself authorized to call the most original and profound that has ever appeared on moral philosophy."—Sir James Mackintosh.

"The Light of Nature, one of the most attractive books in our language, both to those who read to be themselves instructed on these questions, and to those who read with a view of imparting such instruction to others. So judged Paley in the last generation; and such is manifestly the opinion of Archbishop Whately, and of Bishop Copleston, with many other writers of our own."—Edinburgh Review.

"I do not know of any work in the shape of a philosophical treatise that contains so much good sense so agreeably expressed. I think it impossible for any one not to perceive the beauty, the maîtrise, the force, the clearness, and propriety of his illustrations."—Hazlitt.

Tucker's Light of Nature is "a work in which the noblest philosophy was brought down by a master-hand, and placed within the reach of every man of sound understanding."—Robert Hall.

TURNBULL'S TRAVELS IN CUBA, with an Account of Porto Rico and the Slave Trade, 8vo. map, cloth, bds. (pub. at 15s.) reduced to 5s Longman, 1840

"Cuba, whether we consider its extent and geographical position, its magnificent harbours, the fertility of its soil, or its mineral riches, well deserves the appellation of 'The Queen of the Western Islands.' Since 1827, when Humboldt published his 'Statistics of Cuba,' her resources have increased, her population augmented, and her trade received a great public impulse. Mr. Turnbull's work contains a vast mass of information, relating to the natural resources of the island, its trade, revenue, government,—subjects of great interest and but imperfectly, if at all, known in this country."—Athenæum.

TURNER'S (DAWSON) GUIDE TO THE ROMAN ANTIQUITIES OF THE CITY OF TREVES, translated from the German of Wyttenbach, 8vo. 22 plates and vignettes, extra cloth, (pub. at 8s 6d) reduced to 5s 1839

"This elaborate work comprises all the principal facts in British History; Biographical Notices of eminent Public Characters; Tables of the Progress of Taxes, the National Debt, Agriculture, Commerce, Shipping, and Navigation; Accounts of Variations in Prices, Wages, and Currency; Lists of the Public Statutes from Magna Charta, and of the Men of Letters and Science who distinguished each Reign; with accounts of Changes in the Manners, Diet, Industrial Pursuits, Amusements, and Costume of the People; comparative statements of Crime at different periods; and other details tending to exhibit a condensed but complete View of the Rise and Progress of the British Empire, from the earliest authentic Era to the Death of William IV.

"This volume should be in the possession of every one who has occasion at any time to refer to facts or occurrences connected with English history, whether his object be to ascertain a leading particular of law, finance, statistics, biography, politics, or political events, or to follow out their study. The book is not a mere mass of dry statistical or chronological details, but a powerfully written commentary on characters and occurrences, as well as a seriatim chronicle of them."—Spectator.

&c. &c. royal 4to. with two large plates, half-bound, olive morocco, the top edges gilt, 15s 1791

This curious and interesting antiquarian work was privately printed in the year 1791, and is almost unknown to the public, scarcely a dozen copies of the impression having been parted with. The three or four which appear to have occurred for sale by public auction have produced upwards of three pounds each. The few copies now offered were recently discovered in an old warehouse, where they had remained for nearly fifty years, and been forgotten.

WATERSTON'S CYCLOPÆDIA OF COMMERCE, Mercantile Law, Finance, Commercial Geography and Navigation, new edition, including the New TARIFF (complete to the present time); the FRENCH TARIFF as far as it concerns this Country; and a Treatise on the Principles, Practice, and History of Commerce, by J. R. McCulloch, one very thick closely printed vol. 8vo. (900 pages) with four maps, extra cloth (pub. £1. 4s) reduced to 10s 6d 1846

This capital work will be found a most valuable manual to every commercial man, and a useful book to the general reader. Its contents are so multifarious, that it is difficult to cite even the principal, but the following will give some idea of them:—

1.—Descriptive and Statistical Accounts of Commodities, with Customs and Excise Regulations, Duties, &c.

2.—Commercial Statistics of the different Countries of the World, including their Physical Character, Productions, Trade, Seaports, Monies, Measures, Finances, &c.

3.—Colonies, Shipping, Public Companies, Railways, Roads, Docks, Post Office, &c.

4.—Summary of the Principles of Commerce, Finance and Banking, with historical and statistical illustrations.

5.—Digest of Commercial Law, including Insurance, Partnership, Principal and Agent, Bills of Exchange, Sale, Guaranty, Bankruptcy, Shipping, and Contracts and Obligations in general.

6.—Commercial Arithmetic and Accounts, Exchanges, Coins, Measures and Weights, Public Funds, Interest, Annuities, and Assurances, with numerous Tables.

7.—Explanation of Mercantile Terms and Usages; besides a variety of miscellaneous information.

"This work has been compiled with care, and gives the most recent and authentic information on the matters treated of. It will prove a valuable addition to every mercantile library, and be found a useful book of reference in all commercial matters."

Athenæum.

"A work of the very highest value and importance to the commercial community. All kinds of information that can by any possibility interest those engaged in mercantile transactions are here collected. The most minute attention is displayed, and the utmost research is manifest in every department of the work. Facts are carefully collected and carefully condensed; all the useful statistics on any branch of commerce are used; and, in short, no pains are spared to make each treatise on each subject the most complete that has ever appeared."—Chronicle.

"On all the various subjects on which this useful compendium treats, we have the most copious and satisfactory information; while on all general questions, the views of the writer appear liberal and enlightened. As a specimen of the manner in which the work is executed, we might refer to the different articles on Banks, Colonies, Commerce, Exchange, Insurance, Interest, Navigation Laws, Stock, Shipping, &c. on all of which the reader will find correct and comprehensive views, with copious details, useful in themselves, and corroborating the general sentiments of the writer."—Edinburgh Evening Courant.

WATSON'S PHILIP II. and III. with Duulop's Philip the 4th, and Charles the 2nd, forming the best history of Spain, 4 vols. 8vo. cloth, uniformly lettered, (pub. at £2. 2s) reduced to £1. 8s 1839

WELLINGTON, LIFE OF THE DUKE OF, COMPILED FROM THE DISPATCHES, and other authentic Records and original Documents, by GEORGE SOANE, A.B., 2 vols. fcap. 8vo. handsomely printed, with pretty woodcuts, elegantly gilt cloth, (pub. at 10s) reduced to 6s 1840

"No person of any time ever formed a more noble subject for the pen of the historian or the biographer, than the Duke of Wellington; and never, perhaps, was there an eminent person of whose actions, and even thoughts, more copious records have existence. The numerous accounts of his military exploits, particularly of his glorious campaigns in the Peninsula, as recorded by Napier, and his own extraordinary dispatches and correspondence given to the world under the editorship of Col. Gurwood, furnish materials as perfect as they are authentic; and of these and other documents Mr. Soane has most ably availed himself: his work is copiously restrained within the limits of two volumes, and it gives a clear and full narrative of the Duke's great actions, in a style equally energetic and perspicuous."—Argus.

— DISPATCHES OF THE DUKE OF, during his various Campaigns in India, Denmark, Portugal, Spain, the Low Countries, and France, from 1799 to 1818, compiled from Official and Authentic Documents, by Lieut.-Colonel Gurwood, the compressed edition, one thick vol. medium 8vo. elegantly bound in gilt cloth, (pub. at £1. 5s) reduced to £1. 1s 1842

"For the Duke of Wellington's Character as a Statesman, let every one read his wonderful Dispatches, which found a fame far loftier even than the triumphs of the warrior."

WELLESLEY'S (MARQUIS) DISPATCHES FROM SPAIN, 8vo extra cloth bds. (pub. at 8s 6d) reduced to 3s 6d Murray, 1838

"The information in this volume is of the most valuable order, and is indispensable to the attainment of a correct acquaintance with the Spanish affairs of that period."—Literary Gazette.

WELSTED'S CITY OF THE CALIPHS, AND TRAVELS ALONG THE SHORES OF THE PERSIAN GULF AND THE MEDITERRANEAN, including a Voyage to the Coast of Arabia, and a Tour on the Island of Socotra, Adventures among the Bedouin Arabs, &c., 2 vols. 8vo. map and plates, extra cloth bds. (pub. at £1. 5s) reduced to 12s 1840

"We have seldom met with a book of travels which has afforded us more pleasure than the 'City of the Caliphs.' Full of adventure, of glowing description, and of perilous incident, it excites for itself a species of interest nearly allied to romance—it has in fact all the charm of romance attached to the worth of reality."—Literary Gazette.

"A publication of singular interest and entertainment. In these days of dull and flat common-place, it is quite refreshing to come upon a narrative of strange travel and wild adventure like this, which recalls to mind the exploits of the old voyagers of Spain and England, when half of the world was undiscovered, and the other half unknown. Our traveller quits India by embarking on the Persian Gulf in a trading vessel bound to Muscat, and the first important features of his narrative relate to that remarkable city. Here he commences slave merchant, and embarks for Gambran, visiting, in his way thither, some of the singular islands in the Persian Gulf, and particularly those where the pearl fisheries are established, of which he gives an interesting description. In due course he reaches Bagdad, the celebrated 'City of the Caliphs,' remains there a considerable time, and affords many details of it that are not to be found in the narrative of any other traveller. Among the most interesting of his adventures are those which take place among the Arab of the Desert, particularly the Bedouins, with whom he passes a considerable period. Another point of great interest in these sketches is the celebrated city of Damascus, of which we have many graphic and characteristic descriptions; also of Tripoli, Lebanon, and Baalbec."—Naval and Military Gazette.

WILSON'S (RAE) TRAVELS THROUGH RUSSIA, POLAND, etc., 2 vols. 8vo. plates, extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 4s) reduced to 8s 1828
 — TRAVELS THROUGH FRANCE AND ITALY, with Sketches of Roman Catholicism, 8vo. plates, extra cloth, (pub. at 17s) reduced to 4s 6d 1835

Rae Wilson's Travels are strictly prohibited in Catholic countries, on account of his free critiques on their ceremonies, of which there are also engraved illustrations.

"There are, perhaps, few volumes of travels more generally acceptable to the public than those before us. The author is so ardent and enthusiastic on the subjects on which he treats, particularly those connected with religion, that he carries the reader along with him, and always inspires respect."—Literary Chronicle.

AINSWORTH'S TOWER OF LONDON, an Historical Romance, illustrated by GEORGE CRUIKSHANK, thick medium 8vo. NEW EDITION, with 95 highly-finished etchings on steel, and fine wood engravings, elegantly bound in cloth, richly gilt on back and sides with new and appropriate devices, (pub. at 15s) reduced to 10s 6d 1844

OF THIS VERY ELEGANT AND POPULAR VOLUME FIFTEEN THOUSAND COPIES HAVE ALREADY BEEN SOLD.

"This Romance adds much new lustre to the author's name, and deservedly classes him in the foremost rank of writers in this mingled species of history and fiction. It is a stirring and powerful narrative of some of the most affecting tragedies of English History, relieved by fancy and ingenuity equal to the most playful and grotesque invented characters and incidents. As relates to all its main points, it is an episode of truth,—a genuine picture of the age,—and also a tale of amusement and interest. The genius of his colleague, the illustrator, has kept pace with the demand upon it. Cruikshank has, indeed, walked into almost a new line, and added a series of compositions of profound depth and tragic power, to those illuminations of fancy and humour with which he had previously enriched so many popular productions."—Lit. Gazette.

WINDSOR CASTLE, an Historical Romance, illustrated by GEORGE CRUIKSHANK, and TONY JOHANNOT, medium 8vo. fine port. and 105 steel and wood engravings, elegantly bound in cloth, with appropriate devices in old and sides, (pub. at 14s) reduced to 10s 6d 1843

"This is one of the best of the author's productions. Here the Hunter is an extraordinary creation of fancy,—a being semi-mortal, semi-sylvan, and painted with most striking effect. The steel plates by George Cruikshank are of almost unprecedented force and spirit; in many of them he has reached a pitch of execution which no etching of Rembrandt can excel."

ASMODEUS, OR THE DEVIL ON TWO STICKS, by Le Sage; a new and greatly improved translation by Joseph Thomas; ILLUSTRATED EDITION, with 250 spirited and clever wood-cuts by TONY JOHANNOT, impl. 8vo. extra gilt cloth, (pub. at 14s) reduced to 9s 1841

This is the large edition, and very superior to the demy 8vo. publication, both in regard to the cuts and the translation.

"This beautifully illustrated Devil on Two Sticks is in the very first class, in the number and excellence of its engravings. Many of its representations of character are of unsurpassed power."—Post.

SIR WALTER SCOTT says of this delightful Romance—"There is no book in existence in which so much of the human character, under all its various shades and phases is described in so few words as in the Diablo Boiteux. THE FANCY, THE LIGHTNESS, THE SPIRIT AND THE VIVACITY OF THE ENCHANTING PEN OF LE SAGE ARE EVERY WHERE VISIBLE."

"If there is anything like truth in Gray's opinion, that to lie upon a couch and read new novels was no bad idea of Paradise, how would that beatitude be enhanced, could human genius afford us another Devil on two Sticks!"

BREMER'S (MISS) NOVELS AND TALES, translated by MARY HOWITT, viz. Home—Neighbours—President's Daughter—Nina—Every Day Life, a Diary—Strife and Peace—H—Family—Tralinnan—Axel and Anna—Tales: together 11 vols. post 8vo. comprising 14 Novels and Tales, being the whole of the Author's published works; with an authentic portrait of Miss Bremer, handsomely printed on fine paper, extra gilt cloth, uniform, (pub. at £5. 15s 6d) reduced to £1. 16s 1843-45

"By far the best translations of these charming fictions and the only authentic ones. Miss Bremer writes to Mary Howitt in the following terms:

"I need not desire a better translator; your language is beautiful, full of life and naiveté, when it is required, and of strength and feeling, when these should be expressed."

Miss Bremer's Novels are also sold separately as follows:

— THE HOME; OR FAMILY CARES AND FAMILY JOYS, second edition, revised, 2 vols. post 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 1s) reduced to 7s 6d 1843

"Nothing more delicate, or womanly, or beautiful is to be found in our domestic fiction than Miss Bremer's character of 'the Mother?' and welike it none the less for a certain touch of Romance and sentiment not altogether English. . . . It is impossible to read this book as a piece of make-believe. We have had nothing so simply life-like for years."—Athenæum.

"This new story fully sustains all that we said in praise of the penetrative subtlety, nice discrimination, and exquisite delicacy of touch, which are displayed in the first delightful fiction of Miss Bremer."—Tait's Magazine.

— THE NEIGHBOURS, A STORY OF EVERY-DAY LIFE, translated by Mary Howitt, third edition, revised, 2 vols. post 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at 18s) reduced to 7s 6d 1843

"The best novel published this season; and we are sure that it will not only afford a great delight to the reading world, but have a beneficial influence on our literature."—Britannia.

"The execution of this exceedingly curious picture of manners is very felicitous."—Spectator.

"The great charm of this agreeable book is the fresh and life-like picture it furnishes of the domestic economy of Sweden. The scenes it unfolds, the characters it paints, the manners and habits it describes, are both original and obviously true to nature; while the sentiments expressed throughout the narrative are at once amiable and pure, adapted to chasten the heart by rectifying the affections."—Eclectic Review.

— THE PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER, AND NINA; two Novels translated by Mary Howitt, 3 vols. post 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 11s 6d) reduced to 10s 6d 1843

"Miss Bremer possesses beyond any other living writer of her class, the power of realising to the imagination every individual she introduces. The moral beauty and womanly purity which steadily illuminate her narrative, must receive implicit admiration on all hands."—Examiner.

"The President's Daughter,' is a worthy companion to 'The Neighbours'—simple and truthful; and though we may never have met elsewhere any one of the characters, all who have ever looked deeply into their own hearts will claim kindred and acquaintance with them. There is not one that offends by exaggeration—not one that is not recognized at a glance by the humanities of our common nature."—Athenæum.

— NEW SKETCHES OF EVERY-DAY LIFE, A DIARY; together with STRIFE AND PEACE, translated by Mary Howitt, 2 vols. post 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 1s) reduced to 7s 6d 1844

"The whole tale of the 'Diary' is characterized by a healthful and invigorating tone of virtue, which animates and strengthens; and makes Miss Bremer's writings a blessing wherever they are known. Of all her works, none has charmed us more than the beautiful story of 'Strife and Peace.' As a sketch of life, manners, and scenery, it stands unrivalled."—Atlas.

— TRALINNAN: AXEL AND ANNA THE II—FAMILY, and other Tales, translated by Mary Howitt, 2 vols. post 8vo. with a portrait, extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 1s) reduced to 7s 6d 1844

"This novel is well translated, and has attracted general attention in this country."—Edinb. Review.

"The author has succeeded in faithfully illustrating the manners of the age of Ivan the Great; he has also shewn that he possesses brilliancy of fancy, fervour of thought, and elevation of sentiment, as well as knowledge of the movements of the heart, revealed only to the few who have been initiated into nature's mysteries."—Blackwood's Magazine.

"THE HERETIC" IS AS GOOD AS ONE OF SCOTT'S ROMANCES."—The Examiner.

HOOD'S COMIC ALBUM, IN PROSE AND VERSE, illustrated by numerous plates, 12mo. bound in gilt cloth, (pub. at 12s) reduced to 5s 1844

These volumes are full of highly entertaining matter—of anecdotes of the greatest variety and interest."—Literary Gazette.

HOWITT'S (WILLIAM) LIFE AND ADVENTURES OF JACK OF THE MILL; a Fireside Story, by WILLIAM HOWITT, second edition, 2 vols. fcap. 8vo. with 46 illustrations on wood, extra cloth, (pub. at 15s) reduced to 7s 6d 1845

A more entertaining or better written tale for youth has never been penned since Robinson Crusoe; young or old will without question find pleasure in its perusal, and be sure not to lay it down until they have gone entirely through it.

"Two pleasantly written and beautifully got-up volumes, intended for the juvenile portion of the community, and adapted to their capacity. Mr. Howitt possesses the happy knack of accommodating himself to the youthful mind; and there can be no question that his 'Jack of the Mill' will become a favourite."

Observer.

"'Jack of the Mill' we shall not be surprised to find carried the circuit of the kingdom, and whirled by the acclamation of a million youthful voices to the topmost heights of popularity."—Britannia.

"A tale of powerful and thrilling interest, told in that peculiar style, so remarkable for its combined grace and nervousness, for which Mr. Howitt has hitherto been so eminently distinguished. Jack of the Mill, is a most wonderful character; he accomplishes feats of ingenuity and achieves prodigies of valour that are quite beyond the reach of ordinary mortals. No difficulties are too great for him to encounter. It is just such a book as one would like to take up of a cold winter's evening, while the rain is falling and the wind whistling without."—Sunday Times.

"Jack's adventures are told by Mr. Howitt with a spirit as nfluaging as if he were again a boy, and are sufficient to command many a dozen of open-mouthed listeners. There is good faith in his manner of narrative, even where the incidents are the most improbable, which, as has been elsewhere said, reminds the reader strongly of Defoe."—Athenæum.

— WANDERINGS OF A JOURNEYMAN TAILOR, through Europe and the East, during the Years 1824 to 1840, by P. D. HOUTHAUS, translated from the last German Edition, by WILLIAM HOWITT, fcap. 8vo. with portrait of the Tailor, extra cloth, (pub. at 6s) reduced to 3s 6d 1844

"He has scrambled amongst the Klephtes, played with the Neapolitan sharpers, brought home a pilgrim's certificate from the Holy Sepulchre, worn out his appointed days in quarantine and his weary weeks in hospitals, and, in short, is a tailor in ten thousand, to whom the world should bid welcome."—Athenæum.

"Except 'The Bible in Spain,' we have not had so interesting a 'wander-book' for years."

Christian Reformer.

"He has traversed Germany, Poland, Hungary, and Wallachia several times; gazed with professional delight on the varied costumes in Constantinople and Alexandria; ascended the Nile; climbed the Pyramids; dodged the Bedouins; kneeled as a pilgrim in the Holy City; stood in adoration on Mount Zion; cut a walking-stick on Mount Tabor; washed in the Lake of Gennesareth; slept by the side of the Dead Sea; braved the robbers of "blest Arcady;" narrowly escaped being married at Malta by damsels who are worse than Sam Weller's widows; and being stoned for his impertinent curiosity in attempting to enter Solomon's mosque at Jerusalem. His descriptions of all these various places are clear and vivid; the expression of his feelings simple and natural."—Critic.

"Worth a host of the imposing theories of your fashionable tourist. Fidelity, simplicity, shrewdness, are the capital merits of this book."—Inquirer.

— ARTHUR O'LEARY: his Wanderings and Ponderings in many Lands, edited by Harry Lorrequer; CRUIKSHANK'S NEW ILLUSTRATED EDITION, complete in 1 vol. 8vo. extra red cloth, (uniform with Charles O'Malley, Harry Lorrequer, and the Author's other works,) (pub. at 12s) reduced to 9s 1845

"The intense spirit and frolic of the author's sketches, have made him one of the most successful writers of the day." "Some sketches of Mr. O'Leary, a few years since, in Harry Lorrequer's "Confessions," make him not entirely a new portrait; but he is here at full length, and in Mr. Lever's best style."—Literary Gazette.

"The author is pre-eminent for his mirth-moving powers, for his acute sense of the ridiculous, for the breadth of his humour, and for his power of dramatic writing, which renders his boldest conceptions with the happiest facility. It is seldom, indeed, that we have met, in any volume, with such frequent occasions for a hearty and prolonged laugh, and in which the raciness of the fun more often amounts to wit. In Arthur O'Leary Mr. Lever's style is decidedly improved."—Athenæum.

"We hardly know how to convey an adequate notion of the exuberant whim and drollery by which this volume is characterized. It is a perpetual feast of gaiety. Adventure succeeds to adventure, scene to scene, character to character, and in all so much variety, so much genuine humour, that every taste must find something wherewith to be pleased. 'Arthur O'Leary's Wanderings in many lands, carry us from Paris to Brussels, from Brussels to the Brunnsen of Germany, among Dutch smugglers into the mountains of Spa, along the banks of the Rhine; and every where fresh adventures, rich anecdotes, marvellous escapes, and unexpected wonders present themselves.'"—John Bull.

"Mr. Lever has written himself up to great eminence, and is now one of the highest of our authors. This work is better than any of the preceding. It has many tales of great interest, and they are very well told."—Dispatch.

LOVER'S LEGENDS AND STORIES OF IRELAND, both Series, 2 vols. fcap. 8vo. Fourth Edition, embellished with woodcuts by Harrey, bound in cloth, with emblematical devices in gold on the covers, (pub. at 15s) reduced to 7s 6d 1837

"Samuel Lover, the well-known author of ROXY O'MORE, is the genuine author of Irish fun and Irish eccentricity; he reports with exquisite fidelity the odd notions which his imaginative countrymen form of men and things, notions by which sober Englishmen are at once amused and puzzled. The ready retort, the mixture of cunning with apparent simplicity, and the complete thoughtlessness combined with shrewdness so frequently found in Ireland, have never been better portrayed than in these volumes. We recommend them to all who love merriment, as well as to those who wish to study national characteristics."—Athenæum.

"With the cleverest etchings, here is a genuine Irish story-book of the most amusing character. Mr. Lover shews how to tell a tale in the raal Irish manner;—we see the people, we hear them—they are dramatized as they exist in nature, and all their peculiarities are touched with a master-hand."—Literary Gazette.

— HANDY ANDY, a Tale of Irish Life, medium 8vo. (third edition) with 24 characteristic illustrations on steel, elegantly bound in cloth (pub. at 13s) reduced to 7s 6d 1845

— TREASURE TROVE, OR £. S. D., a Romantic Irish Tale of the last Century, medium 8vo. second edition, with 26 characteristic illustrations on steel, elegantly bound in cloth, (pub. at 14s) reduced to 9s 1846

MAN-O'WAR'S-MAN, by Bill Truck, Senior Boatswain of the Royal College of Greenwich, complete in a thick closely printed volume, fcap. 8vo. gilt cloth (pub. at 6s) reduced to 4s Blackwood, 1843

"These sea-papers are among the best we ever read. They give an animated picture of life on board a man-of-war."—Lit. Gaz.

"This work we have no doubt will become a standard novel. Bill Truck does not write like 'Ceeli'; his periods are more redolent of far and grog than of Eau de Monsseline or Tokay; but he is a positive sea-Pilliam, if compared with some of his progeny. His adventures are capital, and capitally told, and well deserve to be issued in their present compendious form."—Athenæum.

MANY-COLOURED LIFE, or Tales of Woe and Touches of Mirth, by the Author of "The Lollards," &c. 8vo. plates, extra cloth (pub. at 8s) reduced to 3s 1843

"A very entertaining and interesting miscellany of light literature."—Literary Gazette.

"A miscellany of fugitive articles, chiefly tales, comic and sentimental, prose and verse; an excellent parlour-window book for a country-house."—Athenæum.

MARRYAT'S (CAPT.) POOR JACK, illustrated by forty-six large and exquisitely beautiful engravings on wood, after the masterly designs of CLARKSON STANFIELD, R.A. one handsome volume, royal 8vo. elegantly bound in cloth with emblematical gilding on the back and sides, reduced to 9s 1840

* * * Of this very popular and remarkably beautiful book ten thousand copies have already been sold at the full price.

"The 'History of Poor Jack' is so naive and yet so interesting, that we have no hesitation in saying it is one of the very best of the author's very popular productions. It is, indeed, a touching picture, noble in its simplicity, and comes home to the heart. The illustrations, from the pencil of Stanfield, for original conception, beauty, truth, and expression, appear to us to be quite equal to the high reputation of the artist,—the first marine painter in the world."—Literary Gazette.

"'Poor Jack' is just completed; and a most amusing fellow he is, and a most amusing set of companions he brings with him. The book while it is interesting is hearty, and of a healthy stamp; the characters are sketched off easily and boldly. Capt. Marryat has been very fortunate in his illustrator, Mr. Stanfield, whose numerous designs (and very numerous they are) are executed with great power and truth."—Times.

"In the simple and graphic style in which this tale is written, Capt. Marryat has no competitor—it is the truth and freedom of Smollett."—United Service Journal.

MARRYAT'S (CAPT.) TRAVELS AND ROMANTIC ADVENTURES OF MONSIEUR VIOLET, among the Snake Indians and Wild Tribes of the Great Western Prairies, 3 vols. post 8vo. extra cloth, full gilt back, (pub. at £1. 11s 6d) reduced to 9s Longmans, 1843

"Extremely entertaining; full of most extraordinary adventures, where we can plainly enough see the hand and touch of this very clever and very popular author."—Athenæum.

— DIARIES AND OLLA PODRIDA, page 67. MARTINEAU'S (MISS) DEERBROOK, a Novel, 3 vols. crown 8vo. half bound calf, (pub. at £1. 11s 6d) reduced to 9s 1839

MILLER'S GODFREY MALVERN, or The Life of an Author. (By the Author of "Gideon Giles," "Royston Gower," "Day in the Woods," &c. &c.) 2 vols. in 1, 8vo. with 24 clever illustrations by Phiz, extra cloth, (pub. at 13s) reduced to 6s 6d 1843

"A most interesting work. It affords us sincere pleasure to bespeak the public regards to this new manifestation of Mr. Miller's literary powers. His account of a poor author struggling in London is evidently drawn from the life; and it is impossible for us to read it without recognizing many facts and characters. Few living writers can present us with more truth and talent than these pages indicate. Some of Miller's sweet poetry is also interspersed throughout the volume."—Literary Gazette.

"This work has a tone and an individuality which distinguish it from all others, and cannot be read without pleasure. Mr. Miller has the forms and colours of rustic life more completely under his controul than any of his predecessors."—Athenæum.

— GIDEON GILES THE ROPER, a Tale of English Country Life, with thirty-six etched illustrations, 8vo. handsomely bound in gilt cloth, (pub. at 13s) reduced to 5s 6d 1841

"This is by many degrees Mr. Miller's best novel. If he knew his own strength, he would never again venture upon any other ground—but loitering along the common side and the meadow-path, and sitting under the yew-tree which shades the village 'public,' or the shrouding tent which covers so much gipsy lawlessness and merriment, 'gather humours off men,'—such as he understands, and can describe again with all the fidelity of intimacy. The story of the village beauty, Ellen Giles, who is an object of lawless pursuit to 'all and sundry,' is well contrived. The hero of the book, Gideon Giles, is an honest, plain, hard-working Englishman: but our hero is Ben Brust, a jolly fellow, with the heart of a man, and the appetite of three—who hates work, and the saving of money."

Athenæum.

"The author paints with a degree of enthusiasm, eloquence, and elegance of style, which have rarely been excelled. Every subject that he touches he paints with the pencil of a master."—Spectator.

This work contains a rare series of Tales, which Von Hammer considers superior to any yet published, and which Galland, the translator of the original Arabian Nights' Entertainments had never seen. They appear for the first time in English in the above vols.

OPIE'S (MRS.) TALES, viz., ADELINE MOWBRAY, The Welcome Home, The Quaker and the young Man of the World, new and elegant edition, fcap. 8vo. with 2 steel engravings, extra cloth, (pub. at 6s) reduced to 4s 1844

"There is a charm associated with the very name of Mrs. Opie; the cause of sound English literature will be most advanced by her writings, and they will be appreciated wherever the English language is spoken."—Morning Chronicle.

"This is a republication of the best of Mrs. Opie's works. She possesses the double merit of enforcing a most useful truth, and exemplifying it in a tale abounding in natural and touching scenes of the family life of English gentlemen. From one end of her works to the other, we see nothing to object to. She excels most of her contemporaries in sound judgment and propriety in her characters and manners."

SINCLAIR'S MODERN FLIRTATIONS, or a Month at Harrowgate. Second thousand, 3 vols. crown 8vo. half bound calf, (pub. at £1. 11s 6d) reduced to 9s 1845

SHAKESPEARE NOVELS, in Three Series; viz: 1. The Youth of Shakespeare, 3 vols.—2. The Secret Passion, 3 vols.—3. Shakespeare and his Friends, 3 vols.—together 9 vols. post 8vo. extra cloth, (only a few complete sets remaining) (pub. at £4. 14s 6d) reduced to £1. 16s 1838-44

"The titles of these works give a very inadequate conception of their contents. They depict the golden age of merry England, when Queen Elizabeth reigned the proudest monarch of the earth, supported and surrounded by those bright constellations in the courtly hemisphere, Bacon, Cecil, and Raleigh: when the cause of literature was accelerated in its glorious march by the undying efforts of Shakespeare and Jonson—who lived "not for an age but for all time."—Herald.

"Full of amusement, keen and lively in their wit, gentle yet rich in their humor, subtle in their traits of character, spirited in their sketches of life and manners, graphic in their descriptions, pregnant in their invention, and altogether superior to the common run of works among which they will rank."—Naval and Military Gazette.

SMITH'S (JAMES) COMIC MISCELLANIES, in Prose and Verse, with a Selection from his Correspondence, and Memoirs of his Life. Edited by his Brother, Horace Smith. Second Edition, with Additions, 2 vols. post 8vo. portrait, extra cloth, full gilt, (pub. at £1. 1s) reduced to 7s 6d 1841

TROLLOPE'S (MRS.) LIFE AND ADVENTURES OF MICHAEL ARMSTRONG, the Factory Boy, medium 8vo. with 24 steel plates, gilt cloth, (pub. at 12s) reduced to 6s 6d 1840

"We are exceedingly glad that Mrs. Trollope has devoted the energies of her powerful and fertile mind to the production of this at once striking, amusing, and useful work. Without any desire to depreciate the value of similar productions, we cannot but consider this as infinitely more valuable than any which we have yet seen."—Metropolitan Conservative Journal.

TROLLOPE'S (MRS.) JESSIE PHILLIPS, a Tale of the Present Day, medium 8vo. post. and 12 steel plates, cloth gilt, (pub. at 12s) reduced to 6s 6d 1844

"One of the best productions of the authoress. The illustrations by Leech could hardly be equalled by Crankshank himself."—Cambridge Chronicle.

"Mrs. Trollope is one of the most skilful, as well as vigorous and original, writers of the day. We strongly recommend her work to all who delight in vigorous and stirring fiction, directed to the accomplishment of a benevolent purpose."—Sunday Times.

WARD'S ILLUSTRATIONS OF HUMAN LIFE, (by the Author of Tremain, De Vere, &c.) second edition, 3 vols. post 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 11s 6d) reduced to 7s 6d 1843

"A most delightful work, abounding like 'Tremain,' in beautiful descriptions, and like 'De Vere' in strong and lively pictures of human character in the different varieties of Life."—Messenger.

"It is a real pleasure to find this gifted writer again contributing the treasures of his mind to the general stock of our literature. His writings are of higher purpose and value than to be read and forthwith dismissed; they are of the kind to be stored in private libraries, and recur to from time to time as a still fresh solace and delight."—Sun.

—PICTURES OF THE WORLD at Home and Abroad, (by the Author of Tremain, De Vere, &c.) second edition, 3 vols. post 8vo. extra cloth, (pub. at £1. 11s 6d) reduced to 7s 6d 1843

"This new work, by the accomplished author of 'Tremain,' consists of three distinct tales, each occupying one volume. The first is entitled 'Sterling.' In point of real and exact observations of life, in happy, easy, and spirited portrayal of character, it may rank with the best of Mr. Ward's previous productions. The second story is called 'Penraddock, or the High-minded,' and nobly does the tale answer to the lofty demands of its title. 'Penraddock' is one of the most pure, perfect, and natural delineations that is to be found in prose fiction. The third story is called 'The Enthusiast,' and is introduced by an admirable essay on enthusiasm, which will be looked upon by many readers as the most enduring gem, the crowning feature of the whole work."—New Mon. Mag.

WASSAIL-BOWL, a Series of Humorous Tales and Sketches, including the Physiology of Evening Parties, by Albert Smith, (one of the Contributors to 'Punch') 2 vols. post 8vo. embellished with numerous laughable wood-cuts by Leech; gilt cloth, (pub. at £1. 1s) reduced to 7s 6d 1843

"Decidedly the pleasantest and most humorous book to which this season has given birth; containing some of the wittiest and most agreeable sketches of society we have met with for many a year."—United Service Gazette.

"A greater combination of wit and humor, fun and drollery, it has not for a long time been our lot to enjoy."—Court Journal.

BOHN'S STANDARD LIBRARY;

A SERIES OF

THE BEST ENGLISH AND FOREIGN AUTHORS,

Printed in a new and elegant form,

EQUALLY ADAPTED TO THE LIBRARY AND THE FIRESIDE,

AT THE EXTREMELY LOW PRICE OF 3s. 6d. PER VOLUME.

THIS Series has been undertaken with the view of presenting to the educated public works of a deservedly established character, accurately printed in an elegant form, and at the lowest possible price that can remunerate the Publisher.

In the present advanced stage of widely-diffused intelligence, and after the many able arguments adduced by some of the most powerful minds of the age in favour of extended literature, it would be superfluous, in a notice of this kind, to extol the advantages of circulating the higher productions of genius and learning, on terms that may render them accessible to all.

The Publisher ventures to assume that his unremitting and long-practised experience in books, his constant intercourse with the learned in all parts of the world, and his extensive literary property, will enable him to bring such resources to the formation of his "STANDARD LIBRARY" as shall leave little or nothing to be desired. These and other facilities have suggested the present undertaking, and concurrent circumstances have hastened its commencement. As holder of many valuable copyrights (including ROSCOE'S LEO THE TENTH, LORENZO DE MEDICI, and the WORKS OF ROBERT HALL) the Publisher considers it incumbent on him to take into his own hands the republication of them in a cheap and popular form, rather than leave them to the piecemeal appropriation of others.

The Publisher would not incur the imputation of inviting attention by inflated promises; but he may safely affirm, that he feels some ambition in the prospect of rendering the projected series worthy of distinction; and is resolved to employ all the means he possesses to merit and secure success.

PLAN OF PUBLICATION.

The Series will be published monthly, in volumes of about 500 pages each, printed in a clear and elegant type, on fine paper, in post 8vo, handsomely bound in cloth, at the low price of 3s. 6d.

Every work will be edited, or translated, by competent scholars; and furnished with Portraits, Indexes, and all the concomitants that can be thought essential to a complete book.

It is by no means intended to limit the Series to any particular class of literature; thus Divinity and Philosophy, History and Romances, Abstract Science and Polite Literature, Ancient Authors and Modern, will be produced in succession, as may either be indicated by the demands of the time, or required by the plan of publication.

VOLUMES ALREADY PUBLISHED.

I.

THE MISCELLANEOUS WORKS AND REMAINS OF THE REV. ROBERT HALL, with Memoir by DR. GREGORY, an Essay on his Character by JOHN FOSTER, Index and fine Portrait, in one volume.

*** As a selection from Robert Hall's works, similar in form to the present volume, is announced in a rival publication, it is important that the purchaser should specify BOHN'S EDITION, which is the only one entitled to contain the Copyright Pieces, the Life by Dr. Gregory, and Foster's Essay.

2 AND 3.

ROSCOE'S LIFE AND PONTIFICATE OF LEO X., edited by his Son, with the Copyright Notes, Appendices of Historical Documents, the Episode on Lucretia Borgia, an Index and Three fine Portraits, complete in two vols.

** Please order BOHN'S EDITION, as a counterpart has been put forth in a rival series, in which many of the Copyright Notes are assumed in a garbled form to avoid the legal consequences of a direct piracy.

4.

SCHLEGEL'S LECTURES ON THE PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY, translated from the German, with a Memoir of the Author, by J. B. ROBERTSON, Esq. Second Edition, REVISED; complete in one volume, fine Portrait.

** The former edition of this valuable work, published in 1835, in two volumes 8vo, is a very scarce book, and, until this republication, was worth from £1 11s. 6d. to £2 2s. The present single volume contains every syllable of the two volumes 8vo, with sundry additions and corrections, a very elaborate Index, and a fine Portrait.

5 AND 6.

The Specimens of early French, Italian, Spanish, and Portuguese Poetry are translated into English Verse by CARY, WIFFEN, ROSCOE, and others. Complete in two vols, with a new Memoir of the Author, an enlarged Index, and two fine Portraits.

7.

ROSCOE'S LIFE OF LORENZO DE MEDICI, CALLED THE MAGNIFICENT, including the Copyright Notes and Illustrations, with a New Memoir by his Son, and a fine Portrait.

** Please to order BOHN'S EDITION, as a similar one has been put forth in a rival series, and although Mr. Bohn lately succeeded in obtaining an injunction against it, the Editor has again foisted it on the public with colourable alterations.

8.

HENRY G. BOHN, 1846.

---

This capital edition was published from the Author's corrected copies and manuscripts, for the benefit of his widow, who survives. The copyright was disposed of for the large sum of £4,000, and is now the property of the Advertiser. The greater portion of the work is still copyright, and, in virtue of the recent act, will continue so for many years; and, as several of the early pieces were printed only for private distribution, and not published, or were printed as orally delivered, without consent of the author, these also are protected. But as the copyright of some of the earlier works has expired, it is now deemed advisable to republish the whole in an authentic edition, at such a price as can leave little temptation to others to assume that portion which is unprotected.

The present edition, in small 8vo, is a reproduction of the elegant large letter edition in 6 vols. demy 8vo, of which copies may still be had at the reduced price of 7s. per volume, or £2. 2s. for the set.

The volumes may be depended on monthly, as they are all printed, and ready for delivery. Indeed, those who wish to take the 6 vols. at once, may have them immediately.

TESTIMONIA.

"WHOEVER WISHES TO SEE THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE IN ITS PERFECTION MUST READ THE WRITINGS OF THAT GREAT DIVINE—ROBERT HALL. HE COMBINES THE BEAUTIES OF JOHNSON, ADDISON, AND BURKE, WITHOUT THEIR IMPERFECTIONS."—Dugald Stewart.

"I cannot do better than refer the academic reader to the IMMORTAL WORKS OF ROBERT HALL. For moral grandeur, for Christian truth, and sublimity, we may doubt whether they have their match in the sacred oratory of any age or country." PROF. SEDGWICK (in his Discourse on the Studies of the University.)

"THE SERMONS AND DISCOURSES OF ROBERT HALL ARE WONDERFUL COMPOSITIONS; wonderful both for the scale and the variety of the powers they display; a head so metaphysical, seeming to have little in common with an imagination so glowing; declamation so impassioned, with wisdom so practical: touches of pathos so tender, with such caustic irony, such bold invective, such spirit-stirring encouragements to heroic deeds; and all conveyed in language worthy to be the vehicle of such diverse thoughts, precise or luxuriant, stern or playful—that most rare but most eloquent, of all kinds of speech, the masculine mother-tongue of an able man, which education has chastened, but not killed; constructed after no model of which we are aware; MORE MASSIVE THAN ADDISON, MORE EASY AND UNCONSTRAINED THAN JOHNSON, MORE SOBER THAN BURKE.

"The bold diction, the majestic gait of the sentence, the vivid illustration, the rebuke which could scathe the offender, the burst of honest indignation at triumphant vice, the biting sarcasm, the fervid appeal to the heart, the sagacious development of principle, the broad field of moral vision—all these distinguish the compositions of Robert Hall, and we bear our most willing testimony to their worth."—Quarterly Review.

"IN THE ELOQUENCE OF THE PULPIT, ROBERT HALL COMES NEARER MASSILLON THAN EITHER CICERO OR ÆSCHINES TO DEMOSTHENES."—Lord Brougham.

"Here is intellectual food for the scholar, the philosopher, the statesman, and the divine; and expressed in the surpassing language of Robert Hall. He who shall give these volumes a place on his table, will not fail of satisfaction, on whatever page his eye may chance to rest; AND HIS MIND IS LITTLE TO BE ENVIED, IF FROM THE PERUSAL OF THEM, HE DO NOT FIND HIMSELF A MORE ACCOMPLISHED, A WISER, AND A BETTER MAN."—Church of England Quarterly Review.

"I will give my general opinion of this divine in the words that were employed to describe a prelate, whose writings, I believe, are familiar to him, and whom he strongly resembles in fertility of imagination, in vigour of thinking, in rectitude of intention, and holiness of life. YES, MR. HALL, LIKE JEREMY TAYLOR, 'HAS THE ELOQUENCE OF AN ORATOR, THE FANCY OF A POET, THE ACUTENESS OF A SCHOOLMAN, THE PROFOUNDNESS OF A PHILOSOPHER, AND THE PIETY OF A SAINT.'"—Parr (Spital Sermon).

"The excellence of Mr. Hall does not consist in the predominance of one of his powers, but in the exquisite proportion and harmony of all. The richness, variety, and extent of his knowledge, are not less remarkable than his absolute mastery over it. HIS STYLE IS ONE OF THE clearest AND SIMPLEST—THE LEAST ENCUMBERED WITH ITS OWN BEAUTY—OF ANY WHICH EVER HAS BEEN WRITTEN.—London Magazine.

"His sermons are distinguished by solid and profound philosophy, and breathe a spirit of humility, piety, and charity, worthy of that pure and divine religion, to the defence of which the author has concentrated his talents. His eloquence is of the highest order, the natural effusion of a fertile imagination and of an ardent mind, while his style is easy, various, and animated. On a review of all his various excellencies, we cannot but expect with confidence that the NAME OF ROBERT HALL WILL BE PLACED BY POSTERITY AMONG THE BEST WRITERS OF THE AGE, AS WELL AS THE MOST VIGOROUS DEFENDERS OF RELIGIOUS TRUTH, AND THE BRIGHTEST EXAMPLES OF CHRISTIAN CHARITY."

Sir J. Macintosh.
